"If you must keep money at home," warned a reformed burglar, "don't hide it behind a picture, or under the carpet, or behind the clock, or in a coffee can. These are the first places where burglars will look."

The safest plan is never to keep more than a few dollars at home. The rest can best be earning interest in a bank. Come and get a pass-book.

Big Sum Paid for Beets
More than $400,000 was paid to the growers of sugar beets for the Holland-St. Louis Sugar company during the 1924 campaign.

The total crop amounted to about 66,000 tons and the acreage totaled about 12,000 acres. The wet spring, however, prevented many of the growers from cultivating and approximately 10,000 acres of beets were harvested during the 1924 campaign.
