CATHEDRAL HIGH HERE TOMORROW

Capital City Team To Play Catholic High Cagers Friday Night

Basketball fans of Decatur are anxiously awaiting the referee's whistle which will start the game between the Catholic high school and the Cathedral high school of Indianapolis, at the new high school gymnasium here Friday night. The game promises to be a real test for the local cagers and an interesting contest is anticipated. The locals have won all seven games played by them this season and they are anxious to keep their slate clean.

Coach Conter stated today that Wemhoff, regular forward on the green clad quintet, is suffering with a dislocated thumb, but likely will be able to play tomorrow night. The other players on the squad are in good condition.

It is costing a large sum to bring the Indianapolis team to this city and a large attendance of fans is necessary to make expenses for the Catholic high school athletic association. This will be the first time for many years, if not the only time that an Indianapolis high school team has played in this city.

Three games will be played tomorrow night. The two preliminary games will be played by the first and second girls' teams of Catholic high school and the first and second girls' teams of St. Augustine, of Ft. Wayne.

Local basketball fans are displaying great interest in the contest between Catholic high school and Cathedral high school of Indianapolis, which will be played in the new high school gym here Friday night. The Indianapolis school, although not a member of the state high school athletic association, is recognized as one of the leaders in high school athletics in the state, and a victory for the local cagers over them would mean much to the Decatur school. Coach Conter reported today that all of his players are in fine condition for the game with the exception of Wemhoff, regular forward, who is suffering with a dislocated thumb. He injured his thumb in practice Tuesday evening. The coach said today that he likely would be able to play Friday night. It is costing the Catholic high school a large amount to bring the capital city team here and the support of the local fans is needed to finance the game.

Coach Kennedy of the Decatur high school Yellow Jackets, started holding secret practice last night. In the future the Yellow Jacket practice sessions will be secret affairs and spectators will be barred. Too much dope leaking out, was the coach's comment.

McTigue Outpointed By Mickey Walker Last Night

New York, Jan. 8.—Careful Mike

McTigue, the light heavyweight champion of the world, was saved again last night because the decision could not be given against him.

Some time ago McTigue was given a bad beating in Newark by Young Stribling, a young southerner of his own weight and size and last night he was out pointed in the same ring by little Mickey Walker, the welter-weight champion of the world.

Walker, because he stayed on the aggressive and tried to poke his bigger opponent out of a shell of defense won practically every round of a 12-round no-decision contest that drew 9,000 spectators.

Walker weighed 149 3/4 and McTigue was under his division's weight at 160 pounds.

Bloomington, Ill.—Illinois Wesleyan took a 33 to 21 victory from the Lincoln college basketball five here last night.

Milwaukee—DePauw's basketball quintet found the going easy and defeated Marquette here last night, 26 to 16. Ward led the tossing for the visitors, looping five baskets from floor and three free throws.
