Amateur Broadcaster Is Bothering Radio Fans Here

AMATEUR BROADCASTER $... $

Officials of the Adams County Radio Club stated today that an investigation was being made to determine the identity of an amateur broadcaster in this vicinity who is interfering greatly with radio reception in this city. The amateur apparently is practicing in sending code as local radio fans have copied the signals and found them to be the letters "A, B and C". It is thought that the broadcaster is operating without license and even if he does have license, he is violating the law by being on the air between the hours of 8th and 10 p. m. A radio inspector may be called to aid in the investigation.

"Ginger" Will Keep Babies While Parents Go To Game

"Ginger" E. F. Gass, although not a basketball fan himself, believes in others going to the games. Tonight the big game of the season of the Decatur Catholic high school and the Indianapolis Cathedral teams will be played and "Ginger" sent out word this afternoon that he would not be able to go, but that he would be willing to keep the neighbor's children while dad, mother and the older brothers and sisters attend the game.

"Ginger's" proposition was made to reliable parties and several mothers are planning to leave their children with him during the game tonight.

He lives at the corner of Fifth and Adams streets.
