Dry Goods Dealers To Meet At Capital Tomorrow

Indianapolis, Jan. 20. -- The annual mid-winter convention of the Indiana

Retail Dry Goods Association will be held in parlor A of the Lincoln Hotel here tomorrow, January 21. There will be an all-day session for the members of the association, only. Matters of importance relating to the dry goods situation in the state will be discussed. Recently, questionnaires regarding the costs of operating the different departments of the stores were mailed to each member of the association, and these will be discussed at the convention tomorrow.

Dan M. Niblick, of Decatur, president of the association, will preside at the meeting. State Senator Harlan, of Richmond, will address the merchants at their noon-day luncheon.

New York Has Driving Snow Storm This Morning

(UNITED PRESS SERVICE) New York, Jan. 20. -- New York waded through the most uncomfortable of the winter today, a driving wind piling drifts in sidestreets and making the work of shovels difficult.

It was the second severe snow storm of the new year and came just as an overworked street cleaning department was clearing away the last of the blizzard which swept the city early in the month.

Surface lines were handicapped thousands of workers were late to their posts.

Traffic in the harbor was delayed, ships fighting their way through the snow and heavy seas.

St. Louis, Jan. 20. -- A light snow fell here overnight but moderating temperatures resulted in most of the snow blanket melting before morning.

Political Pot Begins To Boil At Bluffton

Bluffton, Jan. 20. -- The political pot began boiling today with announcements of three candidates for the nomination for mayor on the democratic ticket.

The candidates are Theodore V. Harsh, Daniel T. Brinneman, and possibly F. G. Thompson, mayor incumbent.

While there may be other candidates and persons have until April to file their candidacies, the three mentioned are the only ones made known at the present time. Thompson is asking for a second term and Brinneman and Harsh are making their first bid.

Along with the announcements for mayor are reports of candidacies for councilmen. It is known that Charles Huddleston is asking re-election as councilman from the second ward, while O. E. Iesh, serving the unexpired term of William Davis, is asking election as councilman at large.

Industrial Prospects Are Bright At Gary

(UNITED PRESS SERVICE) Gary, Ind., Jan. 20. -- Not since the first ground was broken in 1906 for the building of the city have industrial prospects been so bright the coming year as they are now, business men declared today.

During the past year expansion here reached its climax with the completion of the first unit of the Gary Tube Works at a cost of more than $10,000,000. Up to date, more than $150,000,000 has been invested in Gary industries.

The New Year is being ushered in with the opening of a new United States Steel corporation plant, which when completed, will represent an investment of more than $50,000,000. The plant has nearly reached the highest peak in operation since the World War.

Coughs Always Dangerous—Quick Way to Stop Them

Chronic coughs and chest colds often lead to more serious trouble. Not only is the infection itself dangerous, but the continual coughing spells day and night so weaken your entire system that you can no longer fight off disease.

Stop a cough the quickest you can. To do this there is nothing better than that old-time tried and proved remedy—Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. Doctors say this is nothing but plain honey, but it is compounded of a certain percentage of pine-tar, honey and other quick-acting, healing ingredients which the best doctors have found to be most reliable.

Contains no opium or other harmful drugs, so can be given even to young children—fine for spasmodic cough. If you want the best, a medicine that often relieves the severest cough overnight, make sure you get Dr. Bell's. Only $2.50 at any good druggist.
