Lullie Walters Wants Divorce
Mrs. Lullie M. Walters today filed suit in the Adams circuit court for a divorce from Delbert H. Walters, for the custody of their minor children and $500 alimony. Mrs. Walters, who is a resident of St. Marys township, alleges that her husband failed to provide for her and their children, that he refused to procure fuel to keep them warm and she was obliged to chop and haul wood. She says she and their children were compelled to make the hay and care for the livestock on their farm. The couple were married September 11, 1896 and separated December 16, 1924. Attorney Judson W. Teeple, of Decatur, represents the plaintiff.

Suit On Note
A suit on a note was filed in the circuit court today by John T. Myers and company against Bate Ray. Judgment for $75 is demanded. Attorneys Lenhart and Heller represent the plaintiff.

Sen. Mayfield To Be Seated Despite Protests

(UNITED PRESS SERVICE)
Washington, Jan. 22.—Senator Earl B. Mayfield, democrat, Texas, will be seated by the senate despite the contest brought by George E. B. Peddy, his republican opponent in the 1923 elections.

Peddy's contest, based on charges of intimidation, excessive expenditure of money and alleged support of Mayfield, by the K. K. K. was dismissed by a vote of the senate subcommittee, which investigated it.

Thirteenth Holdup Is Fatal To Boy Bandit

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 22.—His thirteenth hold-up attempt will prove fatal to Guy Parker, 16 year old bandit, physicians believed today. Parker was shot under the heart by Ralph Coppock, cafe proprietor, who he tried to hold-up early this morning.

A companion, George Gillespie, 19, was arrested and confessed that he and Parker had "stuck-up" an even dozen before the boy was shot down.

CHICAGO GRAIN
(UNITED PRESS SERVICE)
Chicago, Jan. 22.—Grain futures opened irregular on the board of trade today. Nearby options were lower wheat and corn.

Selling in nearby wheat was induced by rumors that corner exists. Dr. J. W. T. Duvall, federal grain supervisor in a statement denied the rumor saying present high prices are justified by world's conditions. Moderate buying in new crop months was due to apprehension over the winter crop.

Nearly corn was weak due to liberal offerings and less urgent demand. Sellers in the new crop found ready purchasers in those skeptical regarding contract grades after expiration of present deliveries.

Oats showed stubborn resistance with all deliveries advancing on heavy farm consumption. Provisions were higher on better shipping demand.

Four Large Cities In America Are Overbuilt
(UNITED PRESS SERVICE)
Chicago, Jan. 22.—Four major cities in the United States are overbuilt, according to statistics released today by the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

They are New York, Boston, St. Louis and Chicago.

St. Louis is slightly overbuilt in apartments.

New York passes the mark in higher grades of residence buildings.

Boston is overbuilt in business and industrial property.

Chicago has too many middle-priced houses and apartments.

A survey completed by 259 member boards of the National Association of Real Estate Boards lays the basis for the association's conclusions.

"Sterilization Bill" Is Introduced In Senate
Indianapolis, Jan. 22.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—The Eugenic "sterilization bill" sponsored by the state board of health was introduced in the senate yesterday by Senator Holmes, of Gary.

The bill provides for sterilization of persons who are chronically incapable of maintaining themselves as useful members of the organized society.

Bills endorsed by the Indiana Isaac Walton league to further regulate fishing and hunting in the state were introduced simultaneously in both houses.

The co-operative marketing bill expected to be reported by the house and senate committees on agriculture was held up in the committee during the morning session.

The complaint as filed in the petition came as a bolt from a clear sky, so far as the officials of the company here knew, every thing was satisfactory. Mr. Yager was at Berne yesterday and talked to several who said they signed the petition thoughtlessly, but that they could really not tell why they did. The company is constantly improving their lines and hope to have the very best system in the state. They are sorry this trouble has arisen, but they will insist that the commission investigate and if there is any thing they can do to

Adam Buettel Resting Well This Afternoon

Adam Buettel, well known local tailor who was seriously injured yesterday noon when he slipped and fell on the city pavement of a downtown street, was reported to be resting well this afternoon at the Adams County Memorial hospital. He spent a restless night last night, however. His left hip and left shoulder were broken in the fall. Due to his advanced age, which is 61, it will require much time for the injuries to heal.

Mrs. Buettel and their daughter have been ill for the past few weeks and were unable to accompany Mr. Buettel to the hospital. Mr. Buettel's tailor shop over the Peoples Loan & Trust company bank will be closed for the present, at least.

clean clothes they found in a closet upstairs. Four or five old coats and suits of dirty underwear were left lying on the floor and bed. Nothing besides the clothes was missing from the house, as far as is known. Small candles were found in various parts of the house, indicating that the intruders had used them for light.

The underwear left in the house bore laundry marks and the clothing was taken to the Decatur Laundry this morning in hopes that the laundry proprietor might identify it, but the laundry mark was not that of the local laundry. The coats were tailor made and bore the tags of Chicago dealers.

Entrance to the Hunsicker house was gained through a rear transom. They had left through the rear door.

Mrs. Heller, accompanied by her son, Henry, and daughter, Mrs. Tyndall, went to her house about 4:30 o'clock yesterday evening and discovered that intruders had been there, recently.

As at the Hunsicker residence, every drawer had been removed and the contents emptied on the floor. An old trunk in the attic, even, had been ransacked and the contents scattered over the floor. Crackers and mustard were sitting on the kitchen table, indicating that the intruders had enjoyed a light lunch while there. Small partially burned candles were found there, also. Mrs. Heller stated that she had not missed anything from her house. Entrance was gained there through a rear transom, also.

The Hunsicker house had been entered sometime between Friday night of last week and yesterday, as Don Hunsicker, a son of A. D. Hunsicker had visited the house last Friday and everything was alright at that time. It is believed that the house was entered one night this week. Mrs. Heller had not been in her house for several days. Silverware and other valuable articles were removed from both houses before they were closed for the winter.

Some are inclined to believe that the work was that of local talent while other believe that the intruders were strangers in the city. In either case, the intruders, evidently knew that both houses were unoccupied at present.

A party residing on Fifth street reported last night that a man was seen prowling about his house at two different times on Tuesday night.

Mr. Hammontree was the song leader at the Union Meetings here in 1921 and his success was most gratifying and the announcement of his return meets absolute approval. Mr. Hermanson is not known here, but it is evident that he is a pianist of high rank or he could not follow Dr. Torrey and Mr. Hammontree.

Dr. Torrey had not announced his program for the messages that he is to bring. He prefers to first size up the situation and needs here and then preach the messages that he believes will have the most value. He has announced, however, that on Sunday morning he will probably speak on "Power of Prayer," in the afternoon on "Soul Winning," and in the evening on "What It Costs Not to Be a Christian." In the afternoons of the week he will usually speak on "prayer," along the same course of thought that he used in his latest book, "The Power of Prayer and the Prayer of Power," though one or two addresses may be given on the "Holy Spirit." The other subjects will be decided later, he states.

had no idea about the amount taken. "Why can't you tell how much you had?" Postnought persisted when questioning the aged man.

"Well, I don't count it every whip-stitch," he answered. Mr. Harmon testified that he had not been able to identify Comer in Marion. He said further that he made no statements to anybody while there but that his wife did the talking.

"Then on your testimony would you want a jury to find this man guilty and sentence him to a long term in the penitentiary?" Postnought asked. "No I wouldn't," was the answer.

But when the attorney put a similar question to Mrs. Harmon, she answered without hesitation, "Yes sir."
