The Luncheon Bridge Club held a very delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. James Arnold last night. The guests besides the club members were Mesdames Wal Wemhoff, James Cowan, Herman Gillig, James Brown, all of this city, and Mrs. Fred Schaub, of Cleveland, Ohio. Prizes were won by Mrs. Frank Barthel and Mrs. Wemhoff. The hostess was assisted in serving a dainty repast by Mrs. J. Q. Neptune.

LaVergne Heche Gets Venue From Judge

Bluffton, Jan. 30.—A motion was filed this afternoon, and granted, for a change of judge in the case of LaVergne Heche, of Vera Cruz, charged in circuit court with a violation of the liquor law, for alleged transportation of intoxicating liquor. Judge Hamilton nominated Judge E. C. Vaughn and T. V. Harsh, of this city; Judge Victor Simmons, of Hartford City; Judge Jesse Sutton, of Decatur, and Judge W. N. Ballou, of Ft.

Wayne, from which list a special judge will be selected. The case had been set for Friday, but there will be a delay of a few days at least. The defense attorneys have two days to strike off names, and the state's attorneys will then strike off two names, and the remaining or fifth jurist of the group of five will be the special judge. Judge Hamilton said that if agreeable to the special judge a date for the trial will be set for this term.

ROTARIANS HEAR DECATUR BANKER

W. A. Lower Gives Interesting Talk At Regular Meeting Of Club

W. A. Lower, secretary of the Peoples Loan & Trust company of this city, gave an interesting and instructive paper on banking and the relation of the bank or financial institution to the community, at the Rotary Club meeting last night. Mr. Lower stressed the fact that banks tried to serve the community and that it was their purpose to help promote the business enterprises and farming conditions in the community. Henry Heller, president of the club, gave a three-minute talk on Rotary business ethics and C. C. Pumphrey acted as chairman of the meeting. Arrangements are being completed by the club members to attend the district conference at South Bend on February 23 and 24.

Less Fuel Consumed By Autos On Paved Roads

Indianapolis, Jan. 30.—(Special)—Tests conducted by a number of state highway commissions of the nation show that for fuel alone, the driver of a Ford car who travels 6,900 miles a year can save slightly better than $18 a year if all driving is on paved roads rather than gravel roads. To operate the same car 6,000 miles on earth roads costs $17 more in gasoline at 20 cents per gallon, than on paved highways.

So when an occasional protests is registered against paving Indiana state roads, highway officials suggest the car owner get busy for a few minutes with pencil and paper and determine to his own satisfaction if there is not a huge saving to be had between the two types of roads.

Indiana highway officials pave a road when traffic on it reaches a point of density that it is cheaper to pave than to longer maintain with gravel or stone. So far they have not gone to the trouble of figuring up for the individual owner how much he benefits and the amount actually saved when he operates his machine over pavement.

Tests conducted over five and six year periods in all parts of the country by highway commission, tire companies, fuel stations, and expert engineers, are authority for the figures that, using the Ford car as the basis of calculation because more of this make are on the roads, it is 31 of a cent cheaper per ton mile with gasoline selling at 20 cents a gallon to operate over a paved road than a gravel road. That is on fuel alone, and does not estimate the saving on car depreciation and garage bill between the various surface types. And cutting the gasoline bill in two can be further augmented by a saving on tires.

Point Out Advantages Of Greek Letter Fraternities

W. E. TIBBITTS
"The Destiny of Men and of Bible lecture to be given by Mr. W. E. Tibbitts, of Fort Wayne, in the Adams theatre on Sunday, Jan. 31st at 10:00 a. m. The public is urged to hear this lecture.

day denied the charge made by Malcolm MacDonald, son of the British former premier, that American college fraternities are exclusive and snobbish. Through their spokesman, Wade Fetzer, president of the interfraternity council, Northwestern's fraternity men pointed out the advantages of Greek letter societies in colleges and universities.

"A fraternity is a co-operative enterprise," Fetzer told the United Press. "It smooths the edges of the rough diamonds and it removes the excess shine from the slickers. It is the function of the fraternity to take men from all classes and force them to meet other men and to accept responsibilities.

"The acceptance of responsibility is the greatest force for the development of character that I know." Fetzer, a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, said most of the Greek letter societies make it possible for young men to secure a college education by finding jobs for men who wish to work their way through school.

"Of course," he said, "a fraternity is exclusive in that each chapter selects its own members. But these men do not create an 'holier than thou' atmosphere. At Northwestern the fraternity men and those who do not belong to fraternities mingle freely on the campus. Except in the lodges, you couldn't tell a fraternity man from a non-member."

TOMORROW The Most Important Selling Event of The Year Draws to a Close

A sale which will long be remembered by those who have taken advantage of the opportunity to give their pocket book a thrill. People who have visited this sale have viewed the price tags with amazement and some have said "How do you do it?"

We inaugurated this selling campaign fully determined to give the people of Decatur and surrounding territory a veritable banquet of bargains such as they have never had the good fortune to attend before and will not soon again. And those who appreciate good values were not disappointed because the public knows full well that it is equal will not be possible for many a year to come. The voluntary spontaneous words of recommendation spoken friend to friend means more than all that we can say, to have some friend tell you that at Pumphrey's you will receive every courtesy whether you merely wish to look or intend to buy. That prices are so much lower than you could expect and that Pumphrey's is a good place to buy, this is better advertising than can be put in cold type.

The sale closes tomorrow evening at ten o'clock. All sale prices will be abandoned, BUT IT IS NOT TOO LATE YET. You'd better plan to be here tomorrow. Meet some of your old friends, have a friendly chat, and incidentally do your savings account a good turn.

If Andy Gump lived in this territory we feel sure Uncle Bim would be in for a good liberal touch, and we really feel that Uncle Bim, himself, would not pass up the most extraordinary buying occasion that this city has ever experienced. COME TOMORROW. Share in these astonishing values.

We desire to take this opportunity to thank those who have patronized this sale so liberally and we want to assure you that we will always be ready to serve you and give you the best values possible, quality considered.

In Hard Lines

"I could not work at all and had to take to my bed with a high fever due to intestinal indigestion, gases in my stomach and pain in my right side. I had spent my last cent for doctors and medicine, which gave me no relief. I was in despair. A lodge brother gave me a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and the first dose relieved me. Thanks to this medicine I am now in the best of health." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Holt-house Drug Co., and druggists everywhere.
