Daily Report Of Local And Foreign Markets

OPENING GRAIN REVIEW

Chicago, March 3.—Grain futures on the board of trade today started higher. Wheat was the leader in the advance.

Yesterday's statement of farm reserves remained the strong factor in initial wheat trading.

Corn was affected by action of wheat. The trade was limited but at the same time was of influential character.

Better cash demand offset bearish crop and reserve statements in oats. Sharply higher hogs and cables strengthened the provisions list.
