STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC.

Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, of Decatur Daily Democrat, published daily, except Sunday, at Decatur, Indiana, for October 1, 1925.

State of Indiana, Adams County, ss: Before me, a notary public in and for the state and county aforesaid, personally appeared A. R. Holthouse, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the business manager of the Decatur Daily Democrat, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management and circulation etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 42, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are:
Publisher, The Decatur Democrat Co., Decatur, Indiana.
Editor—John H. Heller, Decatur, Indiana.
Managing Editor—John H. Heller, Decatur, Ind.
Business Manager—A. R. Holthouse, Decatur, Indiana.

2. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, are: None.

3. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affirmations of the company as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

4. That the average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed, through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the six months preceding the date shown above is 3205.

A. R. HOLTHOUSE, Business Manager.
Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 1st day of October, 1925.

Daily Report Of Local And Foreign Markets

OPENING GRAIN REVIEW

Chicago, Oct. 2. — (United Press.)—Wheat set the pace in an opening advance of all grains on the Chicago board of trade today.

Failure of offers at the start caused considerable activity among shorts. Holders were encouraged to withdraw bids by sharply higher cables and a reduced spring movement. The theory that the United States is on a domestic basis has been dissipated by recent events was the weapon used by bulls to bring buyers in.

Corn rallied with the leading cereal. Oats were relatively firm. Provisions were lower.

President Coolidge To Pass Through Indiana

Washington, Oct. 2. — (United Press.)—President and Mrs. Coolidge will travel to Omaha, Neb., where the president is to address the American Legion convention on Oct. 6, by way of Cincinnati and St. Louis.

The presidential party will leave here late Sunday afternoon and is due to arrive in St. Louis late Monday afternoon after passing through Chillicothe, Ohio, Cincinnati, O., and Vincennes, Ind., enroute.

The president's route from St. Louis to Omaha lies through Moberly and Chillicothe, Mo. It is understood. The party will arrive in Omaha early Tuesday morning.

According to reliable information, the presidential train will not enter St. Louis but will skirt the city. Halts at cities along the line will be brief.

MONTPELIER—Though it was not discovered for about six years, an insurance policy held by Andy Rapp, former business man here, who died in 1919, will pay his three heirs about $700. The policy was discovered when the insurance company was checking up on all old policy holders.

What Aunt Myra Desired
They brought a darky out of the jail in a North Carolina town with intent to hang him for murder. This was in the day when capital punishment was publicly inflicted. As a special mark of attention the widow of the murderer's victim was permitted to witness the event from a position of vantage directly facing the gallows. She had had a sort of small grandstand rigged up and she had decorated it with bunting, and when the march to the scaffold started, there she sat in a white mother-hubbard wrapper gently agitating a palm-leaf fan, flanked and surrounded by relatives, invited friends and sister members of her lodge.

The preliminaries went forward according to the ritual. When the condemned had been properly trussed up, with the noose dangling about his neck, the sheriff, holding the black cap in his hand, edged up to him and said:

"Well, Jim, we're about ready. If you've got anything to say, I reckon this would be a mighty good time to say it."

"Yes, suh," said the doomed. "I has got sump'n to say. I jest wants to say dat I is fully repented for whut I done. I taken it to de Lawd in prayer an' I knows it's all right wid Him. I ast de judge w'ich tried and de persecutin' attorney, an' de foreman of de jury of they bore me any grudge, w'ich, one and all, they said they did not. An' now I kin go right straight to hebb'en an' nestle in de bosom of Father Abraham ef only I kin git de forgiveness of dat nigger lady sittin' yonder—de wife of de man I kil't."

He lifted his voice, addressing the white-clad figure in front of him:

"Lady," he entreated, "does you fergive me fur shootin' yore husband six times wid a fo'ty-fo' caliber revolver?"

Excepting that her under lip jutted out a trifle farther there was no sign she had heard him. She calmly frowned on.

The darky on the scaffold tried again:

"Lady," he pleaded, "for de secont time I axes you, ain't you, please ma'am, gwine fergive me?"

Still from her there was no response. It was as though she had not heard him. The sympathetic sheriff felt moved to add his intercession:

"Aunt Myra," he called, "Jim, here, will be goin' away from us in a minute and we don't expect him back. Surely you don't entertain any hard feelin's against him now? Won't you speak to him and let him go in peace?"

This time the obdurate widow shook her head in an emphatic negative. Yet still she uttered no sound. The sheriff turned to the condemned.

"Jim," he said, "you see how it is; that old woman is set in her ways. What's the use of wastin' any more time on her? Besides, it's hot as the devil out here and I ought to be gettin' on home to dinner. Just hold still a second and we can have this all over."

"Mr. Lucas," sobbed Jim, "lemme see ef I still can't soffen dat nigger woman's stony heart. Lady," he cried out, "wid money nigh my dyin' breff I begs you fur jest a word. I ain't hopin' no mo' dat you'll fergive me, but won't you please, ma'am, jest speak to me an' tell me what's in yore soul?"

And now she did speak. She motioned with her fan as though it had been a baton of authority, and in impatient tones she said:

"Go on, nigger, git hung—git hung!" (Copyright by the Central Press Association.)

Fleeing Thief Takes "Refuge" Behind Detective

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 2. — (United Press.)—Fleeing from a dusky mob that gazed on him like a dark cloud, shouting "Stop, thief!" Edward Lee, 22, negro, thought he "outsmaned" the pursuers by running behind two white men and yelling "Save me from that mob."

But the white men who saved him from his own race turned out to be Judge Delbert O. Wilmett of the city court, and a detective. As they stopped the crowd, the detective drawing his revolver, both sides of the story were heard and Lee was locked up.

Passenger Train Crashes Into Hancar; Two Killed

Bulletin
Adrian, Mich., Oct. 2. — (United Press.)—Two railroad workers were instantly killed, two were believed fatally injured and 17 others received minor injuries near here today when a Chicago and Detroit passenger train crashed into a hancar with several trailers attached.

The crash was attributed to a heavy fog.

Joseph Cutelo, 35, foreman of the work crew, and W. J. Jones, 32, a negro assistant foreman, were killed.

SEYMOUR—"Too insatiable, let him sleep," said sanitary officer James Willy when he investigated the case of a tramp found near the B. & O. railroad tracks near here. The man was thought to be dead at first.

Washington. — The Green Mound Mine, one of the largest in this section of the state will resume work today, after being idle since last April.

BLUFFTON—Police Chief Gehrett believes in the old saying, "Heavy hangs over thy head." Plastering fell down on him as he sat in the police station.

Japanese Ousted From Oregon City Seek Damages

Portland, Ore., Oct. 2. — (United Press.)—A suit seeking $125,000 damages for five Japanese who were ousted from Toledo, Ore., July 12 in a race riot, was on file in federal court here today. Nine residents of Toledo and leaders in a citizen mob who participated in the affair, were named as defendants.

The case will attain international significance, it was said by attorney for the Japanese.

Toledo citizens, enraged by the importation of Japanese laborers by the Pacific Spruce corporation lumber mill, did not inflict any bodily injury on the Orientals, but took them to the county line and warned them not to come back.

Overwrought Nerves

YOU never heard of a red-blooded person—man or woman—becoming a nervous wreck! And you never will. You never saw anybody with healthy, rich, red blood, get wearied by the activities of daily life. Did you?

No! Its weak blood—lack of healthy, rich, red blood. That's the whole trouble with those whose nerves are overwrought. They lack the resisting powers—the stamina that healthy, red-blood-cells give that enable us to stand up under the strain of daily life.

S. S. S. is the salvation of these unhappy people. It is just the thing needed to strengthen the nerves, restore muscular power to the body, and increase the endurance of weak, failing, run-down women and men.

Don't keep on going down simply because your blood is starving for want of healthy, red-blood-cells. You can get back your nerve power with S. S. S. You can do it just as surely as thousands have done for the past century.

S. S. S. also clears the skin of pimples, boils, eczema—hollow cheeks fill out and firm flesh takes the place of flabby muscles. Why, you'll begin living all over again. Get S. S. S. today from any good druggist. And get the larger bottle. It's more economical.
