MONEY WASTED, SENATOR SAYS

By William J. McEvoy, (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 12.—(United Press.)—A scathing denunciation of the war and navy departments for maladministration of money appropriated by congress for aircraft, amounting in some instances to "criminal waste," was made by Representative Martin Madden of Illinois, chairman of the house appropriations committee before the special aircraft board today.

"Millions of dollars appropriated by congress during the past few years of development have been squandered in a purposeless, meaningless, endless experimental orgy," said Madden.

Replying to the statements of war and navy department witnesses who blamed congress for the backwardness of American aviation, Madden contemptuously exclaimed "blame shifters."

HANNA LOTS SELL RAPIDLY

Nineteen Building Sites In Addition Near G. E. Factory Are Sold

Th lots in Hanna's addition, in the northwest part of the city, near the General Electric factory, are selling rapidly and Austin Stults, representative of the C. S. Kitch Company, which is conducting the sale, stated this morning that, in his opinion, every lot would be sold within a few days.

The sale did not open until Friday, and over the week-end nineteen bona fide sales were made to investors or to prospective home owners. The lots are well located and are on improved streets or near improved streets. Only 31 lots will be sold and one will be given away free at the conclusion of the sale.

The lots range in price from $175 to $420, depending on size and location and several of the purchasers have signified their intention of constructing new homes on them. The terms are $1 down and $1 a week until the principal has been paid.

The Kitch company has its office located in the Niblick building, corner of Second and Monroe streets, and persons desiring information as to the sale of the lots are invited to call there today or tonight and have the proposition explained to them.

Gained 10 Pounds in 22 Days

That's going some—but skinny men, women and children just can't help putting on good, healthy flesh when they take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets.

As chock full of vitamins as the nasty, fish-tasting cod liver oil itself, but these sugar-coated, tasteless tablets are as easy to take as candy, and won't upset the stomach. One woman gained ten pounds in twenty-two days. Sixty tablets, sixty cents and money back if not satisfied. Ask Holthouse Drug Co., or any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. Directions and formula on each box. "Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablet."

RADIO TOPICS

A series of articles on Radio Topics will be run by the Daily Democrat on Tuesday and Saturday of each week, beginning tomorrow. The articles will deal with the various interesting phases of radio. The column will be conducted by Gerald Cole, of the Indiana Electric company and operator of radio station 9DRS. Mr. Cole has made a wide study of radio and is competent to discuss the subject.

A question and answer department will be run in connection with the radio topics. All questions relative to anything radio, addressed to the radio editor, Daily Democrat, will be answered. Letters asking for diagrams, circuits and the like must be accompanied by an addressed and stamped envelope. The full name of the writer must be given with each question and the answers will appear on the days mentioned above. There will be no charge for answers to questions. The articles will not be too technical for the ordinary fan to understand and they should prove interesting and of value to everyone interested in radio.

Mrs. Paul Sauers, of Markle, is a guest of her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Jesse Cole.
