Cline-Buscher

Mrs. Day Cline and son Clyde, have returned from Chicago where they attended the wedding of their son and brother, Harold A. Cline, and Miss Helen Elizabeth Buscher. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Buscher, at 4921 Lester avenue. The bride wore white brocaded satin with pearl trimmings and footware of white kid. She wore a pearl head band and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. She was attended by Miss Mae Geist, of Chicago, who wore a frock of orchid georgette and carried an arm bouquet of roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Clyde, of this city. Immediately following the ceremony, which was read by the pastor of the Congregational church, of which the bride is member, a wedding dinner of pretty appointments was served. Mr. and Mrs. Cline will be at home with the bride's parents after a short wedding trip to Wisconsin and northern states. Mr. Cline is a representative of the Liquid Carbon Company, with headquarters at Chicago.

Brentlinger-McGill

The marriage of Mrs. Velma McGill and Mr. Orval Brentlinger occurred at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Loose Saturday evening at six o'clock. The couple were unattended. The bride is employed by the General Electric company and Mr. Brentlinger is employed in Fort Wayne, but he will begin duties as an inspector at the local General Electric plant next week. He was formerly a resident of this city and a conductor on the Decatur-Fort Wayne Traction line. They will reside on Mercer avenue.

The regular meeting of the W. R. C. will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock. All members are urged to attend as practice will be held. An inspection of the local chapter will be given by Mrs. Daugherty, of Hartford City, October 23.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Miss Gladys Arnold and Frank J. Shorr, which was solemnized at St. Mary's Catholic Church at Fort Wayne last week. The bride made her home with Mr. and Mrs. James Arnold, of this city, for a number of years, and is well-known here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Buckmaster, of Kirkland township, entertained Mrs. Buckmaster's brothers and sisters and their families at a basket dinner last Sunday at their home southwest of Decatur.

The Ladies of the Christian church will hold a bake sale Saturday at the White Meat Market. The liberal patronage of the public is solicited.

A cafeteria supper will be served by the ladies of the Presbyterian church Saturday evening from five to seven o'clock, in the church dining room. The menu will be announced later.

The meeting of the W. W. G. girls of the Baptist church will be held at the home of Martha Moser, Tuesday, October 13. All members are urged to attend.
