PRINCE IS HOME

London Welcomes Home The Prince of Wales After He Spends Six Months In Cruising.

London, Oct. 16—Britain's roving prince today returned to his home shores.

When word reached this city that H. M. S. Repulse, which had carried the prince of Wales to Africa and South America in a six months' cruise, had arrived at Spithead shortly before 9 o'clock the crowds began to gather by thousands at the many towered Victoria stations.

The duke of York and Prince Henry motored down to Portsmouth and greeted their brother when the Repulse anchored.

Princess Mary will await the arrival of the royal train at Victoria.

A rousing reception, indicative of the one to greet the prince upon his arrival in London later in the morning, was given him at Portsmouth. He was met by the mayor and all of the harbor vessels boomed out salutes.

this city, after residing in Fort Wayne for a few years. For many years he and his sons conducted a clothing store and later Mr. Kalver purchased a junk, fur and hide business in this city, which he conducted until about ten years ago, when he retired. He also conducted a junk yard in Bluffton for about two years.

A Staunch Republican

In politics, Mr. Kalver was a staunch and prominent republican. He attended several republican conventions and was always a participant in county, state and national elections. He was a member of the B'Na' Jacob congregation, of Fort Wayne.

Mr. Kalver was a member of the Masonic, Odd Fellows and Eastern Star lodges of this city. He became a Mason in November, 1888, and had held an office in the local lodge since that time. Barney was well-known in Masonic circles over the state and during the last few years, he spent considerable time at the local club rooms.

WRECKED MAIL PLANE

Charles H. Ames, veteran mail pilot, died at his post when his plane crashed into a Pennsylvania mountain in a dense fog as he sped West through the night with the mail.

Winona.—Burglars went to school at Winona Lake. They robbed the East Wayne school of a number of books.

North Manchester.—Funds derived from the sale of the G. A. R. hall here will be used to erect a monument in memory of Civil War veterans.

Nashville.—Brown county may have a gold rush. Milton Matter, of Marion, has panned a large amount of gold on his farm near here.

Hartford City.—C. W. Andre is the new chief preceptor of the Window Glass Cutter's and Flattener's Protective association.

Elwood.—Because Elwood has been so good, Police Chief Parsons has announced that the city will allow roller skating on one of the streets. The city will even pay for the music.
