Livermore Makes Millions. On Chicago Board Of Trade

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Lasalle street financial men today credited Jesse Livermore, New York stock and cotton plunger, with having made several million dollars in operations on the Chicago board of trade which culminated yesterday with a sharp drop in grain prices.

December wheat was off approximately seven cents at yesterday's close from the high price Wednesday. Traders claim that Livermore dumped $8,000,000 bushels of wheat on the market.

Livermore made money both ways, it is claimed. His large buying operations drove wheat up to above $1.50 a bushel earlier in the season. According to the story, Livermore took profits and the price fell to around $1.40. The same sources state he took to the buying side again and drove the price to $1.47 and that he unloaded this week, shoving prices down to $1.40, the low of yesterday.

Brokers believe Livermore's huge turnover netted him several million dollars.

Champion Eats Only 16 "Hot Dogs" Instead Of 24; Recheck Is Made

Several days ago a story was published in the Daily Democrat regarding a champion "hot-dog" eater. The story stated that the young man from Chattanooga came to this city and ate 24 "hot-dogs" within a few hours.

The young man, whose name is Hollenbacher, was here again last night and came to the Daily Democrat office, asking that a correction to the former story be made. The gentleman who set the new record for this vicinity, ate only 16 "hot-dogs" instead of 24, which the previous story said.

Mr. Hollenbacher, however, said that he told several people that he had eaten 24 before he made a recheck and discovered that he had only eaten 16. So the final count for the present record stands at 16.

at the lake. Officials of the Winona Assembly when informed of the find searched their records and discovered that nine years ago Mrs. Porter had lost just such a pin during the summer of 1916.

Dr. Dearing was a speaker at the annual banquet of the Indiana Parent-Teachers association.

Here is a new and delightful dish for dinner; a wonderful place to spend your vacation—or just a perfectly baked loaf of bread.

There is a news message to you in every advertisement. Read this news for home economy and enjoyment.
