YELLOW JACKETS DEFEAT GARRETT

D.H.S. Eleven Wins Its First Game Of The Season
Here Saturday, 6-0

In spite of the fact that they were playing in a sea of mud, the Decatur high school Yellow Jackets came through with a victory over the highly touted Garrett high school football team, Saturday. The score was 6-0. A small crowd of spectators weathered the cold weather and when the game started only about 100 people were at the field.

In the first few minutes of play the visitors rushed the ball to the Decatur 20-yard line and it appeared as though the Yellow Jackets were due for a good trimming, but in a few minutes the home town team tightened and held for downs on their own 15-yard line. On an exchange of punts, Decatur gained about 20 yards and at that point of the game it seemed as though a new spirit made its way into the battered spirits of the Decatur team and every man played in great form.

In the second quarter Decatur started a drive down the field and when the half ended the local eleven was on the Garrett 10-yard line and had just completed a first down.

In the second half of the game, the locals showed the same fine spirit that marked the closing part of the first half. The backfield was working fine and the line was giving the best support of the year. Opening up a series of forward passes, Coach Marshall's team tore down towards the Garrett goal. Once the team was stopped on downs, but on the next play Decatur intercepted a Garrett pass and continued to drive toward the visitors' goal.

With only a few minutes of the third quarter remaining, the locals started a series of line plunges and tore large holes in the line of their much heavier opponents. Finally, Chet Reynolds, Decatur back-field star, tore through center and across the Garrett goal for the only score of the game. Attempt for point after the touchdown failed because of the muddy conditions of the field and ball.

In the final period, Garrett tried hard to stage a rally and at one time, by completing several forward passes, the visitors managed to get into Decatur territory, but not for long, because the Decatur line held and a poor punt by the Garrett quarter was recovered by Decatur in mid-field.

As the game ended, Decatur was in the midst of a smashing advance toward a second touchdown and as the locals neared the 10-yard line, time saved the visitors from having their goal crossed a second time.

Some people who learned the score were of the opinion that it was luck that won for Decatur, but those who saw the game know different. The local outfit showed 100 per cent improvement and they outclassed the visitors in every phase of the game.

The Garrett team outweighed the locals by about a fifteen-pound average, but the football spirit was in the heart of every Decatur player and they played to win.

MICHIGAN TEAM LEADS IN FIELD

Wolverines Rank As Best
Team Of Season At Present;
Penn And Army Fall

New York, Nov. 2.—(United Press)—By an overwhelming 54 to 0 victory over a fine Navy team, Michigan, for the time at least, ranks as the best football team of the season, in the opinion of eastern critics.

The downfall of Penn before Red Grange's Illinois team and the defeat handed to a powerful army eleven by Yale removed the two leading eastern contenders for the mythical national championship and left Michigan practically alone.

Dartmouth remains undefeated now as the eastern leader, but Dartmouth hasn't the record that Michigan has made.

Michigan has beaten three western conference teams—Indiana, Wisconsin, and Illinois. Indiana held Syracuse to two touchdowns and Illinois drubbed Penn.

Yale staged a surprising comeback with a brilliant defense that turned all the army errors into points.

If Dartmouth is defeated in the coming games and Syracuse does not keep a clean slate, Yale will be very much in the running for the eastern title.

Alabama with four victories and no defeats, is leading the southern teams. Missouri, undefeated, holds first place in the Missouri Valley conference and Stanford, California and Washington are tied for the lead on the Pacific coast.

Michigan, of course, is the class of Western conference.

Eddie Tryon, the brilliant Colgate back, still holds individual scoring honors in the east with 90 points, although the Michigan Aggies would allow him to do nothing better than kick two goals after touchdowns Saturday.

Cowboy Kutsch, the Iowa back, leads the Western conference in scoring with 49 points and Benny Friedman, the star Michigan back, is second with 43.

Southern California leads the country in team scoring with 280 points. Dartmouth has scored 245, Cornell 212, and Columbia 210.

Eastern football took a bad smacking Saturday when Penn and the Navy, two of the best teams in the east, were flopped by Michigan and Illinois, the middlewestern also scoring when Notre Dame beat Georgia Tech.

Holthouse Helps Bronson Hall Team Defeat C.C.H.S.

Hugh Holthouse, former Decatur Catholic high school athlete, helped the Bronson hall football team from Notre Dame defeat the Central Catholic high school team of Fort Wayne last Saturday, 12-0. Holthouse played fullback on the Bronson hall team. Robert Voglewede, another ex-D. C. H. S. athlete who is on the Bronson hall squad, did not get into the game Saturday. While in Catholic high school, Holthouse played against C. C. H. S. four times, and on three of the occasions he was forced to taste of defeat and in the other game the score was a tie, so the victory Saturday was sweet to him.

"RED" GRANGE IS HERO ONCE MORE

Illinois Captain Responsible For Defeat Of Pennsylv-
vania, 24-2

By Edward C. Derr,
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Red Grange has returned to the middlewest and this section of the country will divide its time for the remainder of the football season between commending Red Grange for magnificent work last Saturday and worrying about what he will do against the middlewestern teams he has yet to meet.

Grange, from the middlewestern viewpoint, established the superiority of middlewestern football by defeating Penn, the mightiest team in the east, 24 to 2. For that achievement he will everlastingly be thanked.

But Illinois' great victory over Penn demonstrated another thing—that Bob Zupke at last has built a line that can charge and block and a backfield that can run interference for Grange.

This means that Illinois may yet cause trouble in the Big Ten conference despite the fact that the Orange and Blue already is eliminated from championship hopes.

Grange will be called upon to show his wares this week-end against Chicago's Maroons, a team that has not been defeated so far in the Big Ten. If the Wheaton iceman performs anything like he did against Penn, Chicago will be sent out of the championship race.

Michigan's great scoring machine, coached by Fielding Yost and led by Benny Friedman, shared honors with Illinois in setting up middlewestern football through an overwhelming victory over Navy, 54 to 0.

The Wolverine team is unquestionably one of the most powerful in the country.

Michigan this week meets Northwestern and should continue its winning way toward a western conference championship. Northwestern came through with a 17 to 14 victory over Indiana Saturday but unless "Moon" Baker returns to the lineup and gives the Wildcats some added punch, they will not give Michigan much of a fight.

In the other middlewestern games Saturday, Wisconsin made a great rally in the last quarter to tie Minnesota, 12 to 12; Iowa took things easy in defeating Wabash, 28 to 7, and Ohio State found little difficulty in beating Wooster, 17 to 0.

Michigan, with three conference victories and no defeats; Iowa, with two wins, and Chicago, with two victories and one tie, led in the Big Ten. Minnesota got a tie in its only conference start. All the other Big Ten teams have been beaten.

Big Reception On Return
Urbana, Ill., Nov. 2.—(United Press)—Red Grange returned to his classes at the University of Illinois today, and if he had his way about it, he would be simply "one of the 11,000 students" doing the same thing.

But Red doesn't have his own way about things in Urbana as he does against opposing teams on the gridiron. He's an idol in the twin cities of Urbana and Champaign despite all he can do to make it appear otherwise.

More than 20,000 people stormed the railroad station here last night when Red and his teammates returned from Philadelphia where they upset Penn, 24 to 2. There was a cheer and there were many handclaps for all the squad, including Coach Bob Zupke. But for Grange there was more.

Red was hoisted to the shoulders of the crowd—after he had tried to escape by ducking off the rear platform—and was carried by the rejoicing multitude to his fraternity house. There he was called upon for a speech.

"We had a fine visit down east," he began, in a stuttering voice. "I don't know how to thank you fellows for everything but the team deserves the credit. And we're certainly going to do everything in our power to lick Chicago next Saturday."

Then Grange ducked to cover and was seen no more for the night.

East Likes "Red"
(By Henry L. Farrell, United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 2.—There are not enough adjectives or superlatives in the ordinary vocabulary to tell accurately what the east thinks of Red Grange.

It was almost the unanimous opinion of veteran critics who saw Grange and ten other Illinois players humiliate a great Pennsylvania team by a score of 24 to 2, that Grange is the greatest ball carrier that ever ran a football field.

Grange looked even better against the Pennsylvania team that he did in the Michigan game when he rose to mountain heights of fame. He played the whole game, smashed tackles, bucked center, dashed around the ends, caught passes and was in nearly every play on the defense. When he wasn't telling his line where the Penn play was coming he was making the tackles himself.

Doing all this, he had to overcome the handicap of a field that was sloppy with mire and cope with eleven opponents who were rated as the best defensive combination of the east.

ELECTIONS TO BE HELD TOMORROW

City Elections In Several States Hold Interest Of Both Major Parties

Indianapolis, Nov. 2.—(United Press).—Leaders of both major parties in Indiana today whipped their organizations into final shape for the election tests which will come tomorrow in 93 cities in the state.

Both democrats and republicans regard the election as a barometer which will indicate the trend of opinion for the election in 1926 when Indiana will name two United States senators and thirteen congressmen, in addition to state officials.

In most places the interest in the election has been slight, with few important issues at stake.

The vote of the K. K. K. will figure strongly in some of the contests and political observers are at a loss to forecast the result.

Both parties are claiming victory in Indianapolis where a particularly bitter fight has been waged.

Republican leaders are concentrating their efforts in attempting to overcome the margin gained by the democrats four years ago when the party elected mayors in sixty-one of the ninety-three cities.

Indiana, long considered a normal republican state in elections, often has shown a tendency to favor democratic candidates in the municipal elections.

Start Round-up Of Liquor Law Violators

Indianapolis, Nov. 2.—(United Press).—Federal authorities today prepared to round up all persons under indictment for violation of the Volstead act in the operation of a booze ring in Indianapolis and St. Louis.

Capiases were issued for the arrest of 38 persons, it was said.

It is expected that federal agents will also begin the arrest of a number of Cincinnati men said to be involved in the case is called for trial.

George Remus, former Cincinnati bootleg king, who testified before the grand jury in its investigation of the ring, is to be closely guarded until son to school.
