D. H. S. STARTS NET PRACTICE

Thirty Candidates Answer Coach Kennedy's First Call Tuesday Night

Thirty athletes answered Coach Kennedy's first call for candidates for the 1925-26 Decatur high school basketball team last night. The candidates were sent through a lively workout in the high school gym. Although the football season will not close until November 14, the first basketball game is scheduled for November 20 and it is necessary to start net practice now.

Coach Kennedy was pleased with the fine turnout of material last night. Indications are that he will have much difficulty in selecting the lineup for his opening game, which will be played with Kirkland on the home floor. More players will join the squad after football is over.

The candidates who answered the first call were: Bebout, Thomas, Cole, Frisinger and Bockman, centers; Welker, Reynolds, Strickler, R. Zwick, Krick, Lankenau, Callow, Passwater, Deery, Runyon, Haubold, Kocher, H. Zwick and Magley, forwards; Captain Moser, Dierkes, Suttles, Somers, DeVor, Kiess, Koos, Carper, Barten, Macklin and West, guards.

Others who will join the squad later on are Acker, Bogner, Baumgartner, Anderson and Circle, all guards. Bockman, rangy center, will not be eligible to play until the second semester, but he will workout with the team in the meantime. At the beginning of the second semester the squad will be augmented by Engle, Roop and N. Reynolds, forwards, from the Central school team. Coach Kennedy stated today that he would cut the squad to 22 players after preliminary practice.

Veterans from last year's team include Captain Moser, Strickler, Reynolds, Dierkes and Bebout. Several of the others had experience with the first team last year, also.

The schedule for the season is as follows:
Nov. 20—Kirkland, here
Nov. 25—Ossian, here
Nov. 27—Garrett, there
Dec. 4—Auburn, there
Dec. 11—Fort Wayne Central, here.

Dec. 18—Berne, here
Dec. 23—Angola, there
Dec. 29—Bluffton, here
Jan. 1—Columbia City, there
Jan. 2—Bluffton, there

Feb. 5—Garrett, here
Feb. 6—Van Wert, there
Feb. 12—Portland, there

Auto Race For Colored Drivers To Be Held Sunday

Fort Wayne, Nov. 4.—The 75-mile automobile race for colored drivers, which was scheduled to be held at Centlivre park here last Sunday and which was postponed on account of inclement weather, will be held next Sunday if the weather is favorable, according to an announcement made by Bill Sudduth, manager.

Hard luck has camped on the trail of Sudduth for the past month and rain has forced the postponement of this closing event for three weeks. Mr. Sudduth stated last night that every effort would be extended to hold the race at Centlivre park next Sunday.

Some of the cars entered in the race are still in the city and will remain here during the week. The drivers are still anxious to run in the classic and reports indicate that the entire field gathered here the first Sunday the race was scheduled will be back next Sunday. The entry list includes some of the fastest and most daring colored drivers in this section of the country and competition is bound to be keen.

Student Paper Attacks Morals Of University

Grand Forks, N. D., Nov. 4.—(United Press)—The "Harpoon" the deadly pink sheet, five thousand of which were distributed one night at the University of North Dakota last spring, will be investigated by a district court grand jury meeting today.

The "Harpoon" struck terror to the hearts of students and faculty when it was found one morning at the doors of fraternities houses and dormitories. It dealt in no insinuations, but, calling a spade a spade, made open charges, ranging from immorality, drunkenness and doping, down to parsimony, egotism, and timidity.

Students and professors, both men and women were vigorously attacked. No serious charges, however, were made against any of the women members of the faculty.

Last spring faculty investigators, were said to have traced the printing to a shop in a small North Dakota town, but the owner of the shop was unable to identify any of the students in the University year book as those who brought him copy.

At the opening of college this year, President Kane announced that the authors were known and that none were in school this year.

Exposures in The Harpoon ranged from alleged "insides" on University politics, to purporting glimpses of Sunday evening darkened parlor scenes, other petting parties and drinking bouts. One "real party" was described in detail to protect "susceptible, unsophisticated maidens" from the "glib-tongued fast set."

One professor was likened to a "he-duck" with a "dried-up-potato-like face that takes on the official opiate grin," having a "weezened, drug-soaked neck," being "deceitful, hypocritical, low and mean," and "given to attempts to seduce young co-eds."

No charge was so revolting that the "Harpoon" softened the attack by leaving the names to imagination. Nothing in the history of the University ever caused so much comment or such bitter denunciation.

Foreigners Alarmed By New Property Law Proposed In Mexico

Mexico City, Nov. 4.—(United Press)—Commercial circles in this city have been somewhat alarmed by the origin of a legislative project to regulate article twenty-seven, which pertains to the holding of real property in Mexico, so as to make it apply to stock companies and corporations as well as to individuals.

Article twenty-seven states that "only Mexicans by birth or naturalization can acquire dominion over lands, waters, etc., or obtain concessions to exploit mines, waters, or combustibles within the republic; the State may concede the same rights to aliens provided that they agree before the Ministry of Foreign Relations to consider themselves nationals in respect of their holdings, and not to invoke the protection of any foreign government under penalty of losing their properties to the government."
