The C. L. of C. gave a lovely shower last evening at the K. of C. Hall in honor of one of its members, Miss Verena Miller, a bride-elect of this month. Five Hundred and Rhum were played, at which prizes were won by Adelaide Deininger and Rose Steigmyer, respectively, who in turn presented them to the bride. The Council also presented Miss Miller with a beautiful gift. After the games, a delicious luncheon was served by the committee in charge, the members of which were the Misses Tena Schurger, Theresa Appleman, Alice Kriegal, Agnes and Rose Nesswald. Miss Miller's marriage to Mr. Henry Meyer will be solemnized Tuesday morning, October 24, at the St. Mary's Catholic Church.

The office girls of the Cloverleaf Creamery, of this city, enjoyed a sewing party at the home of Miss Gertrude Thieme last evening. Those present were Mrs. Calvin Coppess, Misses Catherine Omlor, Marcella Lengerich, Ethel Erwin, Edna Thieme, Margaret Lengerich, Louise Railing, Anna Bleeks, Catherine Eiting, and Mrs. Clyde Butler. Miss Thieme served delicious refreshments during the evening. The girls expect to meet every week.

Invitations have been issued by Mesdames J. H. Heller, D. M. Hensley, H. F. Ehinger, Dan Tyndall, John Tyndall, Clayton Carroll and Harry Moltz, for a dinner-bridge party to be given at the Elks home Thursday, November 19.

The following menu will be served by the Ladies of the Christian Church Aid Society at their cafeteria supper in the church basement, Saturday evening, from five to seven o'clock: Escalloped chicken, spanish meat loaf, mashed potatoes, gravy, baked beans, cottage cheese, cold slaw, kidney bean salad, pie, cake, fruit, rolls, butter and coffee. The liberal patronage of the public is solicited.

The Research Club will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Fruchte at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. H. F. Callow will have the paper on "Uncle Sam's Most Profitable Purchase."

Tables have been arranged to accommodate a large crowd at the benefit bridge and Five Hundred party which will be given by the members of the Tri Kappa Sorority at the Elk's home tonight. Playing will begin at eight o'clock and refreshments of sandwiches and coffee will be sold at the conclusion of the games. The proceeds from this social affair will be used in carrying out the annual Christmas charity work of the sorority. Tickets are being sold at twenty-five cents and may be purchased from any member or at the door.

The Historical Club had a very interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ben DeVor. The program was especially interesting the subject being, "Know Your Own City," and was given very thoroughly by Mrs. Paul Edwards. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. M. J. Wertzberger and Mrs. Campbell will have the paper on "Indiana Art and Artists."

Mrs. Charles Lose was hostess to the Luncheon Bridge Club last evening. The guests besides the club members were Miss Emilie Crist, Mesdames Joe Lose, Dyonis Schmitt, T. J. Durkin, C. V. Connell, W. A. Kuebler, Carrie Ehinger, R. C. Kohne and J. H. Bremerkamp. The club prize was won by Mrs. Frank Barthel and Mrs. Bremerkamp was awarded the guest prize for winning high score. Refreshments were served by the hostess at a late hour. Mrs. Adrian Wemhoff will be hostess in two weeks.

The Ladies Shakespeare Club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. A. D. Suttles on South Fifth street. Mrs. A. B. Morrison was the leader, her paper being a very interesting one on the subject "Early History of Indiana Prior to 1820." She included several family traditions concerning the Studabaker family, who were pioneers in this section of the state. The next meeting will be held next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Heller and with Mrs. D. D. Heller as the leader, her subject being "The charm of Cape Breton Island." This will be the last meeting before Thanksgiving.

Mrs. H. R. Moltz, south Fourth street, entertained at a dinner bridge. There were four tables and the sixteen ladies enjoyed the occasion. High scores were made by Mrs. W. A. Kuebler and Mrs. James Blair and the low totals by Mrs. J. S. Peterson and Mrs. D. W. Tyndall.

Mrs. E. W. Kampe entertained at dinner last evening, guests including Judge and Mrs. W. J. Vesey of Fort Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Mead and their guests, all of Fort Wayne.

The members of the Catholic Ladies of Columbia will receive Holy Communion in a body Sunday morning, November 15, at the 7:30 o'clock mass.
