

The Directors Of The Old Adams County Bank Take Pleasure In Announcing

John W. Tyndall As President

Mr. Tyndall has assumed his duties at the bank and will co-operate as a part of the efficient organization of the bank in being of service to you.

The other officers are G. T. Burk, vice-president; D. J. Harkless, cashier; A. Scheumann, assistant cashier; R. E. Meibers, assistant cashier.

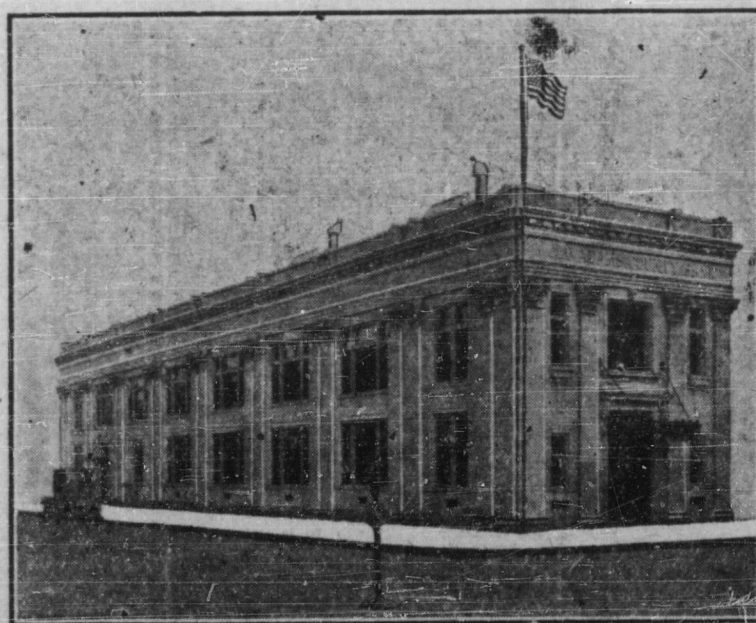

EFFICIENCY, we realize, means courteous, prompt and business like relations between employees and patrons. We promise you this in the future as in the past and we solicit your continued support and approval. For more than half a century this institution has filled an important place in the financial life of this county and led by such men as Jesse Niblick, David Studebaker, William H. Niblick, Robert B. Allison and Charles S. Niblick, former presidents, each of whom held the interests of the community always at heart and who had the confidence of the public, built a clientele including people of every rank. We bespeak for Mr. Tyndall the same loyalty from the citizens of this vicinity, promising our every effort to assist him in meriting it.
