The Wanna-Kum-Bak Five Hundred

club held its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Crist Wednesday afternoon. Five hundred was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Ferd O'Brien and Mrs. Henry Grimsley. The hostess served dainty refreshments at the conclusion of the games. The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. Ray Languell.

Very fine talent was secured from Taylor University to give a recital at the Washington Methodist church Friday evening. The program will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock and the public is invited to attend.

Mrs. J. H. Heller entertained the members of the Shakespeare Club, Wednesday afternoon, at her home on Winchester street. Mrs. D. D. Heller had a very interesting paper on "The Charm of Cape Breton Island," and sub topics were given by Mesdames D. M. Hensley, John Tyndall, Harry Moltz, C. D. Teeple, Elizabeth Morrison and E. B. Adams. The next meeting will be held December 2, with Mrs. S. B. Beavers, who will also have the paper.

The Corinthian Class of the Christian church is extending the following invitation to all to a birthday party at the church Friday evening, November 20. The Corinthian Class extends a kind invitation to you and your friends or any relation.

To come to a party. This little cloth sack is intended to furnish a good place to pack as many pennies as you are years old.

We promise the secret will never be told.

An interesting program of very rare merit will be given those who will come and hear it.

We'll meet young and old with greetings most hearty.

As you come, one and all to your own Birthday Party.

The following program will be part of the evening entertainment:

Instrumental Duet

Myrtle and Mildred Akey

Reading Carolyn Acker

Solo Isabelle Cloud

Reading Margaret Hale

Vocal Duet

Josephine and Florence Anderson

Reading Miss Whalen

Music Miss Akey

"Artists of Indiana" was the name of the splendid paper read by Mrs. Dave Campbell at the Historical Club meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. J. Wertzberger on Third street. Twenty members were in attendance. There will not be a meeting of the club next week, because of Thanksgiving and the following week Mrs. Clyde Noble will entertain.

The Auction Bridge Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. R. H. Kohn last evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Hubert Schmitt, Miss Genevieve Berling, Mrs. Lee Lawrence and Mrs. H. L. Kern. Dainty refreshments were served at the conclusion of the games. Mrs. Frank Lose will entertain the club in two weeks.

Mrs. Charles Lose was hostess to the Five Hundred Club Wednesday evening. The guests, besides the club members, were Mrs. D. D. Clark, Mrs. E. F. Gass, Mrs. Mat Harris, Mrs. John Nearing and her guest, Mrs. Rose. At Five Hundred, club prizes were awarded to Mrs. L. H. Kleinheinz, Mrs. Frank Barthel and guest prize to Mrs. Clark. The next meeting will be held in two weeks. Mrs. Lose served delectable refreshments.

The Kings Heralds of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Charlotte Butler, on Eighth street, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held at the high school auditorium Monday evening, at 7:45 o'clock. The Civic section will have charge of the program. Mrs. J. F. Edwards, prominent reader of Indianapolis, will present "Candle Lighting Time," in costume and will be assisted by several Decatur people who will appear in costume. The program will be open to the public and tickets are being sold at fifty cents for adults, and twenty-five cents for children, including high school students.

Locals

Owen Davis is in Indianapolis, attending the annual meeting of the grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

I'll bet the public would be only too willing to put up with traffic violators if bootleggers if the police would devote all their energies to bandits. I like this ad that shows a beautiful young wife huggin' a husband that's just bought her a washin' machine; few women accept so many things as a matter of course. Abe Martin, Indianapolis News.

Paul Graham and Ralph Yager attended the dedicatory services at the Shrine Temple at Fort Wayne this afternoon.

Miss Ruth Cook and Mr. Bryce Thomas motored to Fort Wayne last evening and attended the Ball at the Shrine Temple.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. H. Burroughs and Dr. and Mrs. Fred Patterson attended the dedicatory services at the Shrine Temple in Fort Wayne today.

Mrs. Elmer Mooney, of near Monroe-ville, who underwent a major operation at the Adams County Memorial Hospital yesterday morning was removed to the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Whitright, on West Monroe street. Mrs. Mooney is getting along satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Humphrey motored to Fort Wayne this afternoon to attend the dedicatory services of the New Shrine Temple.

Mrs. John Heller and Mrs. I. W. Macy spent last evening in Fort Wayne.

The court refused to grant a motion to exonerate Foley at once, made by his counsel on ground that no evidence of guilt had been shown.

ESSEX

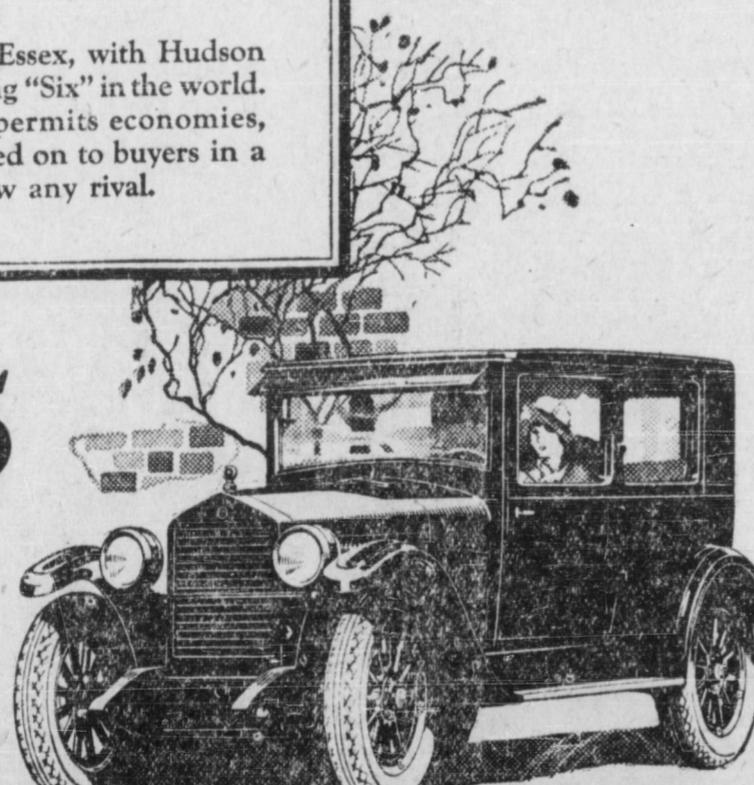

A Six—Built by Hudson Under Famous Super-Six Patents

Quality Gave This Volume
Volume Gave This Amazing Price

For any closed car you will pay almost as much as the Essex Coach costs. So why accept any performance short of a "Six"? In Essex you get qualities of the "Six" not found in any "Four." And equally important, you get the famous Super-Six advantages exclusive to Hudson—Essex.

Quality made Essex, with Hudson the largest selling "Six" in the world. That volume permits economies, which are passed on to buyers in a price way below any rival.
