

Woman Is Recognized As Blackford County Auditor

Hartford City, Ind., Nov. 18.—The Blackford County board of commissioners have at last formally recognized Miss Ruth Werber as auditor of Blackford county, following a long court fight. The board late Saturday allowed her claim for salary for the month of October.

When the board met the first of November, Miss Werber's claim was continued. There was some talk at that time that the board might attempt to declare the office vacant and name some one else to assume it. Since that time, however, a friendly action was brought against Miss Werber, asking that she be ousted. The court heard the action at once, held for Miss Werber, and the state waived any right to appeal. This ended the matter, and, with the filing of the transcript of this action with the commissioners, the claim was allowed by them.

Miss Werber has not drawn the back salary and fees. She has a suit pending in Grant county against Walter Hughes, former auditor, and his bondsmen for this money.

Smokes Disappear From Auto While Driver Is Attending A Banquet

Phil Macklin and his boys attended the "Father and Son" banquet at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening. They motored up in their new Buick and locked the transmission when they entered the church. However, Phil left a box of 100 good cigars in his car and when he came out to go home, the cigars had disappeared. Of course, he thought a lot of things, but finally came to the conclusion that some one had tried the authority to decide whether the unable to unlock it, helped themselves to the smokes and left. Any way it was a mean trick.

Rule For Calling Off Football Games When Weather Is Bad, Sought

New York, Nov. 19.—(United Press)

Members of the football rules committee will be asked at the winter meeting to consider a proposal that games should be called off when there are unfavorable weather conditions.

It was learned today.

It will be suggested that the officials in charge of the game be given the authority to decide whether the
