OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds, stuffed-up and miserable. Relief and catarrh yield like magic. Don't be sure.

vin Miller, Mrs. Charles Miller and Mrs. Anna Robinson. Tables were arranged for rum after which a two-course luncheon was served. Mr. Miller received a beautiful gift from the guests.

The Concord Ladies' Aid Society and Missionary Society will hold a joint meeting at the home of Mrs. Sherman Kunkel Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. A large attendance is desired.

Miss Isabella Cloud will entertain the members of the Winona Camp Fire at her home tonight at seven o'clock.

Miss Angie Pirks entertained the members of the Tri Kappa Sorority at her home on First street. Plans were made for the Christmas bazaar to be held Friday and Saturday at Burd's Millinery Store. A pastry sale will be held at the Central Grocery Saturday morning. The proceeds derived from these two affairs will be used in carrying on their annual Christmas charity. Plans were also made for the annual dance which will be held at the Masonic Hall New Year's eve. The dance this year will be a private affair, for the members and their invited friends, instead of a subscription dance as the custom has been heretofore. The Christmas party and exchange will be given at the home of Miss Mary Suttles, December 23. Tables were arranged for bridge after the business hour, last night. Miss Alta Teeple, of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. Wm. C. Briggs, of Springfield, Ill., former members of the local chapter, were guests at the meeting. Miss Pirks served dainty refreshments at the conclusion of the games.

The Young Woman's Auxiliary will meet Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Naomi Stults on Second street. A good attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chronister entertained at dinner today for Mrs. Agnes Miller-Courtney of Akron, Ohio.

Claims Rhinelander Was Lured Into Marriage

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
White Plains, N. Y., Dec. 2.—(United Press)—Leonard Kip Rhinelander, "innocent and brain tied," was lured into marriage by the sophisticated daughter of a negro cabman, according to the scenario of the sensational mesalliance sketched by the young aristocrat's counsel today.

The youth loved her and married her, and now, having found that she deceived him as to her color, is entitled to an annulment, venerable Isaac M. Mills, trial attorney for Rhinelander, said as he began his summation in the next to the last set of a legal melodrama which has played to packed houses in supreme court for three and a half weeks.
