WET BLOC OPENS ITS ATTACK TODAY

Bill To Repeal National Prohibition Act Introduced In Congress

Washington, D. C., Dec. 8.—(United Press)—The wet bloc of the senate today revealed plans for an attack upon the prohibition law following up action in the house yesterday when wets there prepared changes in the present system.

Senator Edwards, Democrat, of New Jersey, introduced without comment, a bill which would repeal the national prohibition act and his colleague, Senator Edge, Republican, New Jersey, announced he would introduce two bills, one to legalize manufacture of 2.75 per cent beer and the other to remove restrictions on prescription liquor so that physicians could issue any number of prescriptions they chose.

Although the bills were generally looked upon as futile gestures because of the overwhelmingly dry sentiments of both the senate and the house, their authors announced they would demand that they be considered.

Indianapolis, Dec. 7.—(United Press)—"This is the first time I ever gave a man who had a former conviction a second chance," declared Judge Collins in criminal court in suspending the sentence of Clarence Miller, 35, convicted of burglary.

Miller admitted he had served a seven-year term in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta. He pleaded for clemency so that he would be able to support his wife and children and solemnly promised the judge to "go straight."
