Children Weep As
Santa Is "Pinched"
And Taken To Jail

Chicago, Dec. 14.—(United Press)—Santa Claus teetered happily at Randolph and State streets today surrounded by a band of joyous children, patting heads and promising overflowing stockings.

The joy of the children turned to sorrow as Patrolman Mike Reynolds strode up and laid large hands on Santa and then called a police wagon. There were tears and audible sobs from the children as they saw their cherished Santa being hauled into the wagon.

At police headquarters, Santa, in regular life, Thomas Martin, was booked on a charge of being drunk. Martin represented a business organization, and had imbibed a little too much in an effort to steam up a little cheer.

George Moore made a business trip to Fort Wayne this morning.

Daily Report Of Local And Foreign Markets

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET (Prices Delivered)

Corrected December 14

CHICAGO GRAIN CLOSE

Chicago, Dec. 14.—(United Press)—With wheat as the leader, all grain futures started lower on the Chicago board of trade here today.

Selling in wheat at the outset was inspired by weaker cables and better crop news from Argentina. Disappointed longs took profits also, on the theory that holding have passed into weak hands.

Local pressure and weakened wheat reflected in corn.

Oats followed other grains. Provisions held firm without features.

Wife and Husband Both Ill With Gas

"For years I had gas on the stomach. The first dose of Adlerka helped. I now sleep well and all gas is gone. It also helped my husband." (signed) Mrs. B. Brinkley, and often brings astonishing relief to the stomach. Steps that full, bloated feeling. Brings out old waste matter you never thought was in your system. This excellent intestinal evacuant is wonderful for constipation. Smith, Yager & Falks, druggists.
