Sheets-France

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wiles, Winter street, Fort Wayne, was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday evening at five o'clock when their niece, Miss Mary Blanche France, daughter of G. F. France, of Fort Wayne, became the bride of Mr. Harold F. Sheets, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sheets, of near this city. The Rev. E. L. Millins, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church, read the double ring ceremony, while Mrs. R. L. Wiles softly played Lohengrin's Wedding March. The bride's only attendant was Miss Berdeen Bailey, of Huntington, and the groom's attendant was Vaughn Bailey. The bride was beautifully gowned in orchid georgette over orchid satin, fashioned with a low waistline and circular skirt. A silver ornament adorned the left shoulder. She wore hose to match and black satin footwear and a head band of silver leaves. Her flowers were Columbia roses in a shower bouquet. Miss Bailey wore Nile green georgette made with high waist line and full circular skirt. She carried an arm bouquet of Columbia roses. After the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served to the members of the immediate families. Covers were laid for twenty guests. The large wedding cake was used as the centerpiece of the long table. Pink tapers in silver holders were also a part of the table decorations. Mrs. Sheets is a graduate of the International Business college and Mr. Sheets is a graduate of the local high school and is now employed by the Hoosier Incorporated Stores. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sheets, of near this city, entertained in honor of the newly married couple Sunday. Covers were laid for fifty of their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Sheets returned to Fort Wayne today, where they will be at home with the bride's father, at 2412 Oliver street.

The King's Daughters, an organized Sunday School class of the First Methodist Episcopal church, enjoyed a six o'clock dinner Saturday evening at the home of their teacher, Mrs. John Niblick. The following members were present: Misses Effie Patton, Laura Stanley, Goldie Gay, Ethel Tumbleson, Francis Harkless, Mabel Hoagland, Florence Haney, Mrs. Cecile Moser. The annual Christmas exchange was held at this time, after which election of officers was held. Mrs. Moser was elected president, and Miss Gay, secretary and treasurer. Misses Harkless, Haney and Tumbleson, were appointed as a calling committee. The Misses Patton and Stanley, old members of the class, are serving as teachers in the Sunday school, temporarily.

Van Gilder-Kurt

Chauncey Van Gilder, of Nuttman avenue, and Arnette Kurt, of Eighth street, were quietly married Saturday afternoon at the United Brethren church, with the Rev. Cecile Smith officiating. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Ireland were the only witnesses. Mr. and Mrs. Van Gilder are well-known residents of this city. They will reside on Nuttman avenue.
