MARKETS-STOCKS

Daily Report Of Local And Foreign Markets

CHICAGO GRAIN REVIEW
Chicago, Dec. 16.—(United Press)—Grains went into a sinking spell in opening dealings on the Chicago board of trade today. Wheat was leader, registering losses of from 1 7/8 to 3c. Coarse grains sagged fractionally.

Wheat offers increased. Weaker cables and an overbought condition instigated unrestrained profit-taking. Bids showed a marked decrease. Commission houses sold corn. Oats followed other grains on a dull and neglected market. Provisions were strong on good short buying.
