CASEYS TO PLAY LEADERS JAN. 5

Fast Professional Team To Appear In Decatur For Game Soon

The Fort Wayne Knights of Columbus basketball team, members of the American Professional Basketball League, will appear in Decatur for a game with the Decatur Leaders on Tuesday night, January 5. True "Tubby" Andrews, manager of the Leaders, announced today. The game will be played at the Decatur high school gymnasium.

Mr. Andrews said today that "Slim" Gullion may be seen at the center position for the Leaders on that night, since Oliver, regular center for the Leaders, is in Wisconsin. The remainder of the regular lineup, consisting of Mendenhall and Miller, forwards, and Crist and Kennedy, guards, with Christen, Shirk and Andrews for utility, will be seen in action. Further announcements, regarding reservation of seats for the game, will be made later.

The Leaders will go to Montpelier tonight to play the Montpelier K. of P. team. Mendenhall will not be with the Leaders tonight.

FIELD GOALS

BY MARK M. UPP

Please, Santa, will you bring the Yellow Jackets a victory. Never mind, though, Santa, because they are going to get some anyway.

Someone sent out the wrong dope on that Montpelier-Lancaster game at Montpelier Friday night. Instead of the Bob Cats winning 26-24, Montpelier took the long end of a 41-26 score. It was the first defeat of the season for Lancaster.

Casual Comment says: "The most optimistic team in Indiana we know of must live at Hope."

The Bluffton scribes didn't comment on Berne's victory over the Yellow Jackets. Suppose they are taking their time to think up a hot one to spring on us. Since the Tiger's are keeping step with the locals in the number of defeats, though, maybe they will harness their tongues.

St. John's Catholic high of Delphos "aint what she used to be" this year. They were defeated by Vaughnsville (wherever that is) Friday night, 11-5. Decatur Catholic high will play two games with St. John's this winter, the first contest being at Delphos, next Saturday.

The Van Wert quintet lost its first game of the season Friday night, when Ridge won, 23-16. Monmouth plays at Van Wert December 30.

Berne's Fighting Five plays Fort Wayne South Side at Berne tonight.

More power to the Fighting Five.

Huntington's Vikings continued to show improvement over the week-end by holding South Bend to a 35-27 score on Friday night and trouncing Columbia City, 46-23, on Saturday night.

George Purcell, of Vincennes, Casual Comments, "now that Col. Mitchell has been dismissed from the service for five years, and is offered a job down on a Florida newspaper, wonder if he wouldn't keep Hoosier fans 'up in the air' if he ran a basketball sports column in Indiana."

Why doesn't some Hoosier high school employ the Colonel for a coach. He ought to be able to "tell 'em" between halves.

Bluffton's Tigers staged a comeback Saturday night and licked Warren, after falling before Liberty Center the night before.

Its the Lightning Squad when you refer to the Catholic high school team in the future. Lightning strikes hard and so do the Conterites.

The Yellow Jackets travel to Angola Wednesday night for their seventh game of the season. You're a better team than the upstarters, gang. Go prove it. But don't think you can bring home the bacon without working hard for it.

The Leaders journey to Montpelier tonight to play "Slim" Gullion and party. That ought to be a ball game.

Kirkland goes to Chester Center Wednesday night. The Kangaroos can be trusted to uphold the Adams county colors.
