Municipal Christmas program—Liberty Way, 5 p. m.

Saturday

Philo Class—Mrs. Fred Elzey, N 2nd Street, 7:30 p. m.The Bobo Methodist Sunday school will give a Christmas entertainment on Christmas eve. A fine program has been arranged and will include a pageant. The public is invited.The Young Matrons Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Brodbec last evening. The entertaining rooms were decorated with the Christmas colors and a large lighted Christmas tree. At six-thirty o'clock, a two-course dinner was served at small tables. Green holders with red tapers were used as centerpieces and dainty nut baskets with poinsettias were given as favors.
After the dinner, Richard and Robert Brodbec, dressed as Santa Clauses, entered the front door carrying two large baskets of gifts, which they distributed to the guests. Mrs. Lawrence Lawson won the prize in the contest Mesdames Merlin Doan, Orville Baughman and James Fletcher assisted the hostess in preparing and serving the dinner.The gay Christmas spirit was very much in evidence last evening, for the annual dinner and Christmas exchange of the Cloverleaf Creameries, Inc., office employees, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Butler.
The large spacious rooms were charmingly decorated in the prevailing season colors of green and red and a lovely Christmas tree was the keynote of decoration. At six-thirty o'clock, the guests were ushered into the dining room where they were served with an elaborate dinner. A large bouquet of fringed "mums" was used as the centerpiece of the table. At the conclusion of the dinner, the guests were handed clever little parchment cylinders tied with gold cord, each containing a clever little poem with veiled meanings as to the hiding place of the gifts. After a half hour's search the guests were rewarded with lovely gifts. The guests at the enjoyable affair were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Klepper, Norbert Holthouse, Mrs. Calvin Coppess, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Butler, Ethel Ervin, Catherine Eiting, Katherine Omor, Gertrude Thieme, Marcella Lenger-ich and Margaret Mylott. Mrs. A. F.
Stalter, of Portland, was an out-town guest. The office girls were assisted in the serving of the dinner by Mrs. Charles T. Omor and Mrs.
Doy Lhamon.A clever Christmas party was given at the home of Mrs. A. R. Holthouse on Sixth street by the Psi Iota Xi Society with Mrs. Holthouse and Miss Fan Hammell as hostesses. A large lighted Christmas tree, red and green tapers in crystal holders were used as a note of decoration. Clever stunts, "A Grand Opera," "A French Hat Shop," and "A Real Christmas Story," were presented by committee of which Mrs. Frank Rowley, Miss Fan Hammell, and Mrs. Charles Knapp, were chairmen. The guests were then ushered to the dining room where attention complying with Santa's wish, were presented with a lovely exchange gift.
Elaborate refreshments were served by the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. A. F. Stalter, of Portland, and Miss Mary Callow, of Fort Wayne.
Miss Eloise Lewton, who is home from Western College, Oxford, Ohio, was also a guest.The annual Christmas party and exchange was held by the Rebekah Lodge members last evening after the regular meeting. Tables were arranged for twenty-four guests, three at a table, and a potluck supper served. Small red tapers in crystal holders were placed in the center of each table. A large lighted Christmas tree was also a part of the decorations. The committee in charge of the affair included Mesdames Fry, Rebecca Eady and Anna Malott. Numbers were drawn and matched with the packages and each guest presented with a lovely gift.Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams, of Eighth street, entertained at their annual Holiday dinner Sunday for lery and baby, of Huntington, and

CORN

Lift Off-No Pain!

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.
Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irrita-
