Happy New Year, Folks!!

We sincerely hope that it will be a happy New Year for the two Decatur basketball teams, who invade foreign soil tonight. The Yellow Jackets will perform at Columbia City and the Catholic high quintet at Fostoria, Ohio.

We see where it says that Evansville College defeated Wabash last night, 32-31. Not long ago, the Pioneers at Evansville gave DePauw a good trouncing. Looks like the little fellow in Indiana College circles is coming to the front in basketball just as rapidly as the small town high school teams.

Purdue had a scare last night with Missouri, the Boilermakers winning in the last minute, 27-26. Butler handed the Missouri Tigers an awful wallop Tuesday night, something like 37-15. We don't believe Butler is that much stronger than Purdue.

There used to be an old saying, "Don't put yourself on the back or you'll break your arm." If such were the case several column conductors over the state would be carrying their arms in splints.—Muncie Star.

The above item must have been meant especially for the Bluffton scribes.

Friend Buck—Seems to me that Bluffton certainly has a right to claim the best bunch of fans in the county. After seeing the "Taggers" play all year without winning a game in football and sticking around to see them get bumped off regularly, even by Decatur in basketball.
