SEVEN CHURCHES
CO-OPERATING IN REVIVAL SERVICES

It was announced today that the "Christian Home" will be the title of the Sunday morning sermon. Tomorrow night each pastor will begin his series of Evangelistic sermons.

Pastors Working Diligently.

On another page of tonight's Daily Democrat, pictures of each church and pastor, cooperating, are presented, together with a statement of each pastor, explaining the meaning of the services, and urging the attendance at the meetings. The seven pastors have been working hard to make the meetings a success and are confident that the people of Decatur will join with them in setting aside two weeks of the year for earnest worship of God.

The meetings will be covered each night as completely as possible by the Daily Democrat. A reporter will attend one church each night and the following night's story will be based partly on that and the remainder of the story will consist of notes from the other churches, prepared by the pastor or some one designated for that purpose.

The number of persons attending and other interesting figures will be carried from day to day and the Daily Democrat asks the cooperation of every church member in reporting any incidents worth mentioning.

The pastors in charge are: the Rev. Somerville Light, of the Methodist church; the Rev. Ralph W. Loose, of the Evangelical church; the Rev. B. N. Covert, of the Presbyterian church; the Rev. O. E. Miller, of the Baptist church; the Rev. Cecil R. Smith, of the United Brethren church; the Rev. A. R. Fledderpoth, of the Reformed church; the Rev. H. W. Thompson, of the Christian church.

These seven pastors comprise the Decatur Ministerial association and they have been working for several months on the Simultaneous campaign. It is their desire that every church be packed to an overflowing capacity tomorrow morning and that every person continue to cooperate by attending and bringing a friend until the meetings are finished.

Many features will mark each meeting in each church. The sermons will be so given that the continued attendance of each person will mean his obtaining the most out of the meetings, it was explained today.

All churches have been preparing by communions and special prayer services for the big meetings and every pastor and church will be ready tomorrow morning when the two weeks of prayer and religious learning open, at the seven churches.

Husband And Wife
Are Declared Insane

Columbus, Ind., Jan. 9.—Gabriel Cohee, 60, and Mrs. Cohee, 30, will be taken to the Southeastern Hospital for Insane at Crumpton, following the fitting of insanity affidavits against each other. Testimony at the inquest showed they had hallucinations they were pursued by persons who desired to kill them and that the husband fears death at the hands of the Ku Klux Klan.

Sanity inquests were delayed because all available physicians were busy making stork calls.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the American Security Co., will be held at 2 o'clock, Jan. 11, 1926, for the purpose of electing a board of directors. Said meeting will be held at the company office on Monroe street, Decatur, Ind.

AMERICAN SECURITY CO. Jan. 4-9 H. M. Gilling, Secy.
