COLD WEATHER
 FAILS TO HOLD
 BACK CROWDS

Although the crowd was somewhat smaller than the night before, it was very good considering the inclement weather. The pastor preached on "The New Birth." He pointed out that twice-born people were not were emotionalists, not merely those who were convinced of the truth of Christianity, not moralists who have reformed their habits. "The new birth is a divine act brought about by human willingness," he said. "It is complete in the change it has wrought. It manifests itself in four ways. First, the twice born man has faith in and affection for God. Second, the supreme loyalty of the life is Jesus Christ. Third, the Christian lives in the world but is its master. Fourth, the Christian loves his fellow-church members."

 Tonight is Sunday school night. The children's division of the Sunday school will sing. The church has felt deeply the influence of the simultaneous meetings and is in better shape to do work than ever before.

Must I do to be Lost?" "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?"
 This evening, the children will have charge of the opening service under the direction of Mr. Proctor. The congregation is looking forward to this the last service of the week, then to Sunday as the climax of the entire two weeks effort.

Baptist Church
 The service last night was well attended considering the sudden change in temperature. A fine spirit was manifested and there were accessions to the church. The Rev. O. E. Miller used the subject, "What Sunday evening as far as known now."

Evangelical Church
 A large and interested audience heard the Rev. Paul S. Mayer, missionary from Japan, deliver a stirring sermon at the Evangelical church last night. Rev. Mayer has been a missionary for 16 years in Japan and is at present home on a short furlough. He spoke of "The Triumph of Christ in Japan," and the audience was greatly interested in the talk.

The lecture was said by many who attended to be the most illuminating missionary address ever heard. Singing, also, was a feature of last night's services. Tonight, the children will have charge of the opening of the service under the leadership of Professor Gerber. Sunday will be a banner day at the Evangelical church in the final services of the great revival. Special singers will come from Fort Wayne for Sunday.

Christian Church
 In the semi-wind up of the regular services at the Christian church, great interest was shown, and though the sudden change in weather kept many away, a good sized audience heard the Rev. H. W. Thompson's plea for people to lead a real spiritual Christian life. The spirit of Christianity has grasped the people and it is expected that a record crowd
