Big Parking Garages Built In Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 1. — (United Press)—Pittsburgh's parking problem may be partially solved by the construction of huge parking garages, three of which are now being built and others projected.

Located in the downtown district, near hotels, theatres and office buildings, the three units now being erected will have a capacity of 1,700 cars. The combined cost is estimated at $783,700.

The "ramp" type of construction has been adopted so that the cars may be driven from the street to any floor without a stop. The ramps are of a 9 per cent grade, 16 feet long, and with a turning diameter of 60 feet.

The largest garage will be nine stories high.

JAP FARMERS PROSPEROUS

Tokyo (United Press)—A combination of good prices and good crops will bring the income of Japanese farmers this year to total half a billion yen greater than last year, estimates Nakai Kajiwara, president of the governmental Hypothec Bank, the institution founded to finance domestic projects.

This year's rice crop exceeds that of 1924 by some 20,000,000 bushels, while the average high price this year brings the excess value over last year's to 260,000,000 yen.

TO BUILD NEW RADIO STATION

Radio Manufacturers To Erect Super Power Station At Columbus, Ind.

The erection of a super-power radio broadcasting station at Columbus, Bartholomew county, such as would materially affect radio reception in this state, is announced by Charles F. Crump of that city and Major W. D. Dooley, of Chicago, radio expert.

The station will be of the 5,000 watt type, placing it alongside the six most powerful stations in the United States. It will be located on the Crump farm two miles west of Columbus, and will be in the hands of a corporation especially formed for the purpose and closely allied with the Harvey Meta Company, of Chicago, radio manufacturers.

The new station will have the same sort of status as that of the Crosley Manufacturing company, at Cincinnati since it will be owned by a manufacturer of radio apparatus and will be used to keep that fact before the public. The receiving set to be manufactured will, it is said, be known as the Nightingale. It was designed by Major Dooley. The sets will be manufactured in Chicago, but the sales department will probably be located in Columbus. The set now in contemplation is of the ten-tube variety with no ground connection or outside aerial. Another set, of eight tubes will also be manufactured.

No definite plans will be developed by the Harvey company until the government grants the license for operation, which is expected within a few days.

TWO CHURCHES TWO CHURCHES CLOSE REVIVALS

"Judgement" using the following, extracts from the Word, "We shall all stand before the judgement seat of Christ; every knee shall bow to Him, and every tongue shall confess to God. So every one of us shall give an account of himself to God."

Sunday morning, the pastor made a plea for folk to live the Christian life for the sake of Christ, others and themselves, calling attention to what Christ had already done for them, and what he is now doing and what he is going to do for them who serve Him. In the evening, the subject was "Short Beds and Narrow Covers," or "The Insufficiency of the World." He cited to where folk were putting their confidence in, only to see the error of it and when death would come there would be no refuge in none but Jesus Christ.

Special music was a feature of the services yesterday. John Walters sang two beautiful solos, there was a duet by Clarice Jackson and Mable Hurst, who sang the old song "Row Me Over the Tide" and then Mr. Walters and Miss Holland sang "In the Garden."

There will be services tonight. The prayer service at 7 o'clock and regular services at 7:30. The Holy Communion will be observed tonight and this will be followed by a baptismal service. Further announcement of the services will be made at the services tonight.

Methodist Church

The series of revival meetings, which came to a close last night at the Methodist church was a decided success. Sunday was Jubilee day and on Sunday night some time was spent in prayer and testimony, giving thanks and praise to God. During the series of meetings there were seventy-five conversions and forty accessions to the church with others to follow. The Epworth League received thirty-four new members into the League. The whole church was benefited by the meetings.

"Christianity a Religion of Joy," was the subject of the sermon preached by the Rev. Somerville Light Sunday night. His text was the eighth verse of the eighth chapter of Acts. He said in part, "The Holy Spirit takes every man in hand who becomes a Christian; the Holy Spirit speaks to each individual who becomes a Christian; the Holy Spirit decides the action of each person that becomes a Christian. No man in Decatur or any where else can become a Christian without the influence of the Holy Spirit upon his life. The only way a man can find his way into the kingdom of God is through the leadership of the Holy Spirit. Christ's coming was announced with great joy because it was understood that his coming brought great life, that larger life to which reference is made. One cannot be a possessor of the joy of the Christian religion until you receive into your life the joy bringer and the joy bringer is Jesus.

"The yearning of the human heart is for a love, a love power that will go all the way with you, a love power that will hold you in dangerous times. Jesus Christ brought a revelation of love, the like of which the world had never known. We are speaking of a love that a man will lay down his life for his foes as well as his friends. Jesus Christ came and offered himself as an offering for the whole world of humanity.

"There is no fear in love, perfect love casteth out fear and there was great joy in the city when Phillip preached because a Christ of love had been preached to the, a saying Christ in the sense that he saves you from the fear of an ungodly life. It is an awful thing to fall into the hands of an angry God who loved you and sent his Son to die for you. If there is anyone that misses heaven, you charge it up to the Almighty God. He has done everything in His power. God is Almighty in every other realm, except this. God is absolutely omnipotent in that realm but when it comes to the spiritual realm he is not omnipotent, he deals with free moral agents. God cannot save you against your will. You must will to the response of His call, when you do that you will receive the joy."

Troops On Hands To Prevent Mob Violence

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 1. — (United Press)—With the growing threat of violence heavy over Lexington, 1,000 national guard troops moved secretly into the city today, the eve of the trial of Edward Harris, negro.

Harris is accused of murdering Clarence Bryant and his two children, and of attacking Mrs. Bryant.

The guard includes eight infantry companies, two machine gun squadrons and a tank company. Neutral zones are marked off in the city. Beyond these barriers no one may pass without a military pass.

Foundation for these drastic moves is found in the mutterings that stir the city. It is the most brutal crime Kentucky has faced in years.

Six years ago they tried William Lockett, negro, here, for attacking a child. The military guards were stormed. Six civilians were killed.

State, county, city authorities, even the family of the victims join in promising speedy justice and plead that there be no repetition of the lynchings that so often mark crimes of violence.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Shafer, of Ossian, were the guests of Miss Rose Leyse, Sunday.

Charles Brock has returned from Indianapolis where he looked after business interests.

Ford Says Jews Are Needed To Keep The Gentiles Hustling

New York, Feb. 1.—(United Press.)—Henry Ford feels that in the past he may have been too severe in his criticisms of the Jews, according to an interview with the motor magnate that will appear in the February issue of the magazine Farm and Fireside next Monday.

In reply to a question "Do you believe the Jews a menace to America?" the interview will quote Ford as follows:

"No they are not a menace. On the whole they are a good influence. They are so much smarter than the boob Gentiles that it makes them hustle to keep up. That is where the good comes in. It serves people right if they let the Jews work them."

Ford emphasized in the interview his assertion that he had no prejudice against Jews as such. He pointed out that Jews were not only employed in his manufacturing plants but by the Dearborn Publishing Company itself. He admitted that he now felt some of the articles about Jews in the Dearborn Independent "had been too severe."

many people are afraid to study it," added Mr. Ford. "Neither the Jews nor the others benefit by concealment. At first I was blamed for bringing the question into the light but public opinion now approves what I did."

"What I oppose most is the international Jewish money power that is met in every war," said Ford in the interview. "No matter what happens to the nations in a war the money power always wins. No war starts without it and every war stops when it says so. That is what I oppose—a power that has no country and that can order the young men of all countries out to death."

"Most people who talk about world peace never penetrate to the cause of war. The pacifist organizations and others are just dabbles about the surface. As long as the international money power constitutes the invisible government of the backward nations and as the politics of the greater nations, peace is impossible.

"The profits of the international money power are not produced by peaceful industry, but by war; and until we dig these influences out and expose them and neutralize them, world peace cannot be hoped for. That in a nutshell is the chief element in the Jewish question, for the international money power is Jewish.

"They have overplayed their hand, as they always do. It is destined, it seems, that such influences should always overplay their hands at a critical moment. Their setback in Great Britain and the United States occurred just as they thought they were sitting on top of the world."

"The Jewish question is here and too referred."

But in his attitude toward "the international Jewish money power" which he blames for most wars, Ford was as bitterly hostile as ever.
