Bootleggers Of All Classes Rub Elbows

Sioux City, Iowa, Feb. 11.—(United Press)—"White collar" liquor venders—the aristocrats of the bootlegging business—rubbed elbows with ordinary hip flask bootleggers in the Sioux City jail today as a result of the city's most extensive prohibition drive.

Several women were among the fifty alleged violators of the prohibition law rounded up overnight by a corps of federal agents, working under W. E. Dunagan, of Omaha, assistant regional prohibition director.

The raids, climaxing several months of undercover work, were directed at soft drink parlors, rooming houses and drug stores. All the prisoners were denied bail, pending hearings before United States Commissioner A. W. Johnson.
