U. at 6:30. Vivian Thomas, leader. Evening hour of worship and praise at 7:30, subject of message, "Value of a Church in a Community." The Sunday services are full of interest long enough to be worth, yet brief enough that no one tires. An invitation is always extended to those who care to worship with us. "A small church with a big welcome." O. E. Miller, Pastor.

Church of God

E. A. Ball, Pastor. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. Morning service, 10:30 a. m. Young Peoples' meeting, 6:45 p. m. Mid-week prayer service, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Cottage prayer meeting, Thursday, 7:30 p. m. at L. H. Reynolds home on Cleveland street. Everybody cordially invited to attend these services.

Zion Ev. Lutheran Church. Corner Monroe and Eleventh Streets. Paul Schultz, Pastor.

German service, 9:30 a. m. English service, 10:30 a. m. Quarterly congregational meeting of voting members, 2 p. m.

United Brethren Church. 110 S. 9th St. Phone 365. Cecil R. Smith, Pastor.

Bible School at 9:15. These are days when we should do our very best to make the Sunday School grow and in so doing we too will grow in real worth to the church. We have a great day last Sunday, and now what will we do? Let us see if we can not make a continued increase in attendance. Morning worship at 10:30. If the pastor is unable to be present, some one will fill the pulpit. Christian Endeavor at 6 o'clock. "Partners in the Conquering Cause" is the subject.

Evening worship at 7 o'clock. Song service and sermon. We want you to help us and we want to help you, and your presence at these services will do the same. We are glad our Christian Endeavor won the honors at the district contest held Friday night at Zanesville. Let that sort of make us "pep" up for our young people. They are worth all that we can do for them. Are you planning to get in the orchestra? Full details will soon be announced. We are glad so many are responding. Let us tell our friends of our worship services, and invite all who you know do not go elsewhere.

Christian Church

Harry W. Thompson, Pastor. Dr. Burt Mangold, Bible School Supt. Bible school session begins at 9:30 a. m. Communion and sermon at 10:30 a. m. Subject of morning sermon, "The Way." Junior Christian Endeavor at 2:30 p. m. Evening service at 7 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend the service of this church. If you have no regular church home, we will be glad to have you worship with us. Come.

Presbyterian Church

B. N. Covert, Pastor. Tomorrow is the second Sunday of the spring term of church work. Easter Sunday proved to be successful in every way with some splendid standards set for the new year. We hope that there will be no slackening of activity or interest now that this season has passed. This church will maintain four services tomorrow which should be well attended. 9:00 a. m.—Children's division of the S. S. meet for instruction. 9:30 a. m.—Sunday School. Mr. Chas. Teeple is our new superintendent. Installation of new officers. 10:30 a. m.—Morning worship service. Sermon subject, "The Work of the Holy Spirit." Is the Holy Spirit a personality? How does it differ from the conscience? How do we know when we have sinned against it? i. e. "The unpardonable sin." These are questions upon which some light may be thrown. Children's sermon also. 6:30 p. m.—Christian Endeavor Society. Note the change of hour of the evening services for the summer schedule. 7:30 p. m.—Evening worship service. A feature of this service will be the singing of several numbers by the Berne Mehnont quartette, an excellent group of singers from our neighboring town. The pastor will speak on the subject, "The Fate of a Prosperous Wicked Man." Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. — Prayer service. Mrs. C. D. Teeple will be in charge. The topic is "Heroines of the Bible." The lives of four great women of the Bible will be presented. An instructive and helpful hour awaits you. A cordial invitation is given to all church members who have no services in their own church tomorrow.

Zion Reformed Church. Corner Third and Jackson Sts. A. R. Fiedler-Johann, Pastor.

Let the spirit of "Easter church going" continue. If Easter is an inspiration to us one Sunday it should retain its significance and inspiration the Sunday following. Sunday school at 9:15 with an aroused interest in every class. Morning worship service at 10:30 o'clock with an after-Easter sermon on the subject, "Stones That Hinder." You are invited to hear this message. There will be no evening services at this church Sunday night nor the following Sunday night, April 18th, as the pastor is to preach the Baccalaureate sermon for the Jefferson high school graduating class tomorrow night, and for the Kirkland H. S. class the Sunday night following. Friends and members will take note of this announcement. The Junior and Senior C. E. societies will also drop their meeting these two Sunday nights. On Tuesday night, the 13th there will be a mass meeting of all the men of this church at 7:30 o'clock in the dining room of the church. A program will be rendered and refreshments will be served. All of the men are urged and invited to attend.

St. Marys Church

Low mass, 7:30. High mass, 9:45. Christian doctrine, 2:00. Prayer hour and benediction, 2:30.

First Evangelical Church. Ralph W. Loose, Minister.

9:15—Church school session. J. O. Tricker, superintendent. 10:15—Worship period. At this service the pastor will preach, administer the rite of baptism, and give opportunity to any who desire to unite with the church.

There are only three more weeks in this conference year. The annual financial canvass will be made Sunday afternoon, one week from Sunday.

The Intermediate and Senior Leagues will meet at 6:45 Sunday evening. The Junior League will meet at 2:00 p. m.

7:30 p. m.—Evening Evangelistic services, to which all are cordially invited.

There will be a special missionary address given at the church on Tuesday evening by Paul S. Mayer, missionary on furlough from Japan. Those who heard Rev. Mayer on his previous visit here last January will be eager to hear him again. All are cordially invited.

On Wednesday evening, the preaching and prayer service for the entire congregation.

Strangers and friends are cordially invited to worship with us.

One-Year-Old Child Dies Friday Afternoon

Lawrence Edward Isaacs, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Isaacs, died yesterday at 5 o'clock after a very brief illness, at the home of the parents residing about two miles southeast of Decatur. The little child was born at Linn Grove, Indiana, April 5, 1925, the family having moved here about four weeks ago.

Besides the parents, five brothers and four sisters survive: Stephen, Arthur, Wayne, James, William, Anna, Ida, Marjorie and Velma, and a host of relatives in Transylvania, Hungary. The funeral will take place on Monday morning at 9 o'clock from the residence, the Rev. A. R. Fiedler-Johann, pastor of the Zion Reformed church, officiating. Before coming to Linn Grove the Isaacs family lived at Lorain, Ohio, where they were affiliated with the Hungarian Reformed church.

Enumeration Begins Today

The enumeration of school children in Adams county started today and will continue until Friday, April 30. During that time, the names of all children between the ages of six and twenty-one years will be listed.

Women Who Would Be Beautiful Must Spend Seven Dollars A Week

Chicago, April 10.—(United Press)—Seven dollars a week would be every woman's contribution towards individual beauty.

This was the formula presented to the Chicago and Illinois Hairdressers' Association by Paul Rilling, past president of the organization. He drew up the seven dollars a week figure after saying that government figures disclosed women spent $30,000,000 annually on face adornment.

The seven dollars a week should be apportioned as follows, Rilling said:

Shampoo—$1.00. Tonic rub—50c. Facial massage—$2.00. Marcel wave—$1.50. Manicure—$1.00. Eyebrow arched—$1.00.

Earl Archbold Making Good In Electrical Work

Word has been received in this city of the success of Earl Archbold, son of William Archbold of this city. Earl was graduated from Purdue University two years ago and went immediately to the General Electric company at Schenectady, N. Y., where he was employed in the electrical division of that company.

Recently he left Schenectady for North Carolina where he is employed in the electrical department of the Aluminum Company of America. The letter telling of his success was received by Mrs. S. D. Beavers, from Wayne Beavers, of Schenectady. Thetwo young men formerly attended Purdue together and also lived together at Schenectady.

Earl Archbold was graduated from Decatur high school in 1919. In 1923, he received a degree from Purdue, his major study being electricity. He stated in his letter from the south to Wayne Beavers that he enjoyed his new work very much and that he lived at a club with 40 young men, most of them being employed at the same concern.

Jess D. Klopfenstein Is Defendant In Divorce Suit

Fort Wayne, Ind., April 10.—Jess D. Klopfenstein, well-known Fort Wayne singer, was named defendant in a suit for a 10-year separation filed in superior court by his wife, Mrs. Bessie Klopfenstein, 4134 Hoagland avenue.

Mrs. Klopfenstein names Estella Richardson, a Huntington musician, as co-respondent.

The plaintiff says that her husband earned about $250 a month and asked that the court compel him to pay her $125 a month for 10 years for the support of herself and their child, 8 years old.

Mrs. Klopfenstein says that her husband met the Huntington woman two years ago and they became friendly at once and that the Richardson woman invited Klopfenstein to her home with the result that he appears to have become "infatuated" the complaint said. At one time Klopfenstein had a lock box in which he kept the letters which he received from the Huntington woman, it is alleged.

Indianapolis.—After all, a woman can keep a secret if she wants to. For three years Ina Mae Skinner concealed from her parents and friends her marriage to Albert William Mencke, Muncie.—Gerald Chapman should have been given life imprisonment instead of being sent to the gallows, in the opinion of Fred Puckett, detective who aided in his capture here early in 1925.

Florida jammed before season opens. Glass of water 15 cents. Hotels overcrowded. Hundreds living in tents. The New Klondike. Against this seething, roaring background Tom Meighan has made a great picture of real estate and baseball training camps. See Tommy as a ball player. Also Acop's Fables and Pathe News.
