BERNE IS FIRST IN ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL CONTEST

representing Berne high school, defeated Monmouth high school, represented by the Misses Irene Gerke, Helen Boehnke, Adella Berning, and Della Boerger. The winning quartet presented "Mother Machree" and the Monmouth quartet sang, "Kentucky Babe."

Oratorical Contest Close
Ira Lehman, of Berne, talking of "The Crime Wave, Its Cause and Its Cure," won the county oratorical contest from Doris Peters, of the local high school, who spoke on, "The Constitution And What It Means To The Coming Generation." Both orators were highly commended for their ability and thought, and the judging in this part of the contest was very close.

Miss Mary Meyer, of Jefferson high school, took first in the piano solo contest, winning from Miss Alta Kreutzman, of Kirkland. Miss Meyer played "Polichinello," by Rochmanoff, and Miss Kreutzman played "Alice," by Ascher.

Miss Margaret Moiler, of Monmouth, won the reading contest from Ellison Neuenschwander, of Berne. Miss Moiler presented "The Wedding." Mr. Neuenschwander read "Belshazzar, The King." Both readers gave fine interpretations of their work and both received considerable applause. Miss Moiler gave a comical reading, representing a small girl in an orphan home.

Miss Elizabeth Habegger, of Berne, won in the vocal solo division from Miss Josephine Anderson, of Decatur. Miss Habegger sang, "Robin, Sing A Merry Tune." Miss Anderson sang, "Tears And Smiles." The Berne male quartet received first place in the quartet division, there being no other entry. The Berne quartet was composed of Freeman Burkholder, Verdie Reusser, Carl Lugenbill and Lawrence Lehman.

Two fine orchestras were entered in this department of the contest. The Berne orchestra was awarded first and the Monmouth orchestra won second place.

Miss Mary Catherine Schug, of Decatur, won the short story writing contest and received the only first place secured by Decatur high school. By winning this contest Miss Schug enabled Decatur to place second in the county contest. The title of her story was "The Lost Letter." Miss Dorothy Brunstrup, of Pleasant Mills high school, won first in the essay writing contest. The title of the winning essay was "Friendship." It was regarded as one of the best essays ever written by a high school pupil in Adams county.

After the contest, the winners were announced by Clifton Striker, county superintendent of schools, and the medals were presented to the winners. It was voted, unanimously, by the committee in charge, to continue the Literary-Music contest next year. It was decided also, to create more enthusiasm among the various schools, and to have local preliminary contests, in order that more pupils should be given an opportunity to enter into the final contests.

Judges in the contests were Mrs. J. M. Hanell, instructor of Music in the Saratoga public schools, and Resza O. Tonkel, head of the English department of the New Haven high school.

Child's Curiosity Leads To Discovery Of Suicide
Indianapolis, Ind., April 12.—(United Press)—A child's curiosity today had ended in the finding of the body of H. Houston Tall, assistant superintendent of city parks who disappeared ten weeks ago.

Three newsboys walked near the bank of the White River after delivering their papers. One of them ran to see how much the river had lowered since the day before.

On a pile of driftwood floating in the river, the boy saw the body of Tall, anchored to the drift by one foot which was wedged between two heavy logs.

A verdict of suicide was returned in Tall's death.

PARESIS MAY BE CURABLE

Patients In Central Hospital For Insane Yield To New Treatment

Indianapolis, Ind., April 12.—(United Press)—Paresis, one of the most dreaded forms of insanity, may be curable. This was the hope expressed today at the Central Indiana Hospital for the Insane, where newly discovered treatment for the disease is being tried.

Five paresis cases treated show no trace of the disease remaining and the patients have been released. Thirty-five other patients are now undergoing treatment.

Physicians are eagerly awaiting announcement of results of Max Bahr, head of the institution, who is first to put the treatment to test in the state. He is to tell of the treatments to a meeting of the Indianapolis Medical Society.

Patients suffering from the disease, which is caused by syphilis are given malaria fever by injection of germs. In about eight days they become seriously ill, having fever and chills.

They are left in this condition from sixteen to twenty-four days.

The theory is that the high fever destroys the paretic organisms which had caused the patient's brain to disintegrate.

Paresis which is a manifestation of the later stages of syphilis has defied medical science for ages, physicians say. First symptoms are grandiose and fantastic ideas of wealth and power.
