Snappy Jazz Orchestra At Adams On Wednesday

Another vaudeville treat has been booked for the Adams theatre next Wednesday night, when the Hoosier Melody Men, a red-hot, snappy five-piece jazz orchestra will play a program of popular tunes.

The feature picture for that night is "The Runaway" with Clara Bow and Warner Baxter, a thrilling story of the adventures of a movie actress in the hills of Kentucky. No extra admission will be charged for this big stage and screen show, the usual prices of 10 and 25 cents to prevail.

Old Mr. Carter Helped by Simple Mixture

"After taking Adlerika I feel better than for years. At my age (60) it is ideal—so different from other medicines." (signed) W. W. Carter, Adlerika is a simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., which removes GAS in ten minutes and often brings surprising relief to the stomach. Stops that full, bloated feeling.
Brings out old waste-matter you never thought was in your system. Excellent for chronic constipation. Smith,

HONOR PASTOR WITH PROGRAM

Catholic School Children Surprise Father Seimet Sunday Afternoon

Surprising the Rev. Julius A. Seimet, rector of St. Mary's Catholic church, the Sisters and school children planned and gave a program in the auditorium of the Catholic school building Sunday afternoon, in observance of Rev. Seimet's patronal feast day.

Unknown to the beloved pastor, the word went around that a program would be given in the auditorium and a large audience assembled. The program was given by the school children.

Following the afternoon church services, Father Seimet was invited to come over to the school auditorium and there met with the surprise and was informed that he was the honored guest. Today is the feast of St.
Julius, but the program was given yesterday in order to give the members of the congregation an opportunity to attend and to extend their best wishes to their pastor.

The following program was given by Greeting Song—Glee Club.
Address—Eugene Durkin, President
Senior Class.

Grade I
Recitation—Feast Day Spelling Class.
Grade II

Grade VIII

Playlet—Scene at a Ticket Office.

Missionary To Speak At Evangelical Church

A special missionary address will be given at the First Evangelical church on Tuesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Paul S. Mayer, missionary from Japan, on furlough, will give the address. For many years, he has been a missionary in Japan and, at present, is a leading executive in the missionary work of the Evangelical church in Japan, where the church has been at work for the past fifty years. Rev. Mayer is an orator of ability and a real student. His addresses are packed with valuable information along the line of missionary policies and activity, as well as conditions prevailing in Japan. All who heard Rev. Mayer on his previous trip here, in January, will be anxious to hear him again. The public is cordially invited. A silver offering will be received.

Monroe Minister Preaches At Decatur U. B. Church

The Rev. Enos Haggert, of the Friends church, of Monroe, filled the pulpit at the United Brethren church in this city Sunday morning and evening in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Cecil R. Smith, who is conducting a revival service at Union Chapel.
The services at the United Brethren church were well attended and the messages were well received by the congregation.

Revival At Union Chapel To Continue

The Revival Services being held at Union Chapel U. B. church, east of De-cat, will continue each night this week. The attendance and interest at the services Sunday were exceptionally good. The services begin at 7:30 o'clock each evening. The Rev.
Cecil R. Smith, of this city, is doing the preaching. The pastor, the Rev.
B. D. Blauvelt, who has been very ill, is expected to be in the services this week. The local church extends to all a welcome to these services.

COURT HOUSE

New Term Opens

The April term of the Adams circuit court opened this morning. No cases were set for trial today, but the court was busy setting cases for trial and making entries of various kinds.

tion.

How Skinny Kids Gain Weight and Strength

Everyone knows that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitamins, is a flesh-builder supreme. In children where rickets are suspected it even helps to build up the bones and strengthens the body.

But let us all be glad! The poor underweight, sickly, puny kids don't have to take the vile, nasty, oil itself any more for thanks to science Mc-Coy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets has taken its place.

Sugar coated they are and as easy to take as candy and if you will give them to your sickly child for thirty days, you'll be very happy indeed.

If you are not, the Holthouse Drug Co., or the druggist from whom you bought them is authorized to return your money. 60 tablets 60 cents—but be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine.

BROWNING AND BRIDE TO SAIL

fitting a cinderella whose marriage Saturday night prevented the clock from striking twelve on her romance.

While the 15-year old bride and her millionaire husband thus far have kept their plans hidden behind the stern walls of the 15-room old Boyd house, the show place of Cold Springs, the news has leaked out that the newly wedded pair will go to Europe this week—probably Thursday.

Browning, grey-haired really broker of 51 years, has taken pains to prevent a curious public from seeing the plump little girl, Frances (Peaches) Heenan, daughter of a trained nurse.
A uniformed policeman guards the house from an unpainted veranda and it is reported that four bodyguards, under command of a boxing manager, will keep the house further sheltered.

CORPS OF WOMEN BESEIGE SENATE COMMITTEE TODAY

Mrs. Nell Berger, St. Louis, representing the W. C. T. U., said her organization's position would be presented later.

"We are mobilizing half a million women for law observance," she said.
"We succeeded in adopting prohibition because we educated the public schools and church people to the fact that liquor is an alcoholic poison. We still affirm that truth."

Swedish Wealth Shows An Increase

Stockholm, April 12. — (United Press)—The average personal wealth of each Swede is 2,403 kronor or $644, and nearly half of the population still gets its living direct from the earth, that is by agriculture, fishing, or forestry, the latest figures of the Royal Bureau of Statistics show.

Bureau of Statistics show.
The average personal income is $273 indicating that while few people are very rich, few are very poor. Since 1912 both the average wealth and the average income have increased considerably.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Mrs. Frank Lose, who underwent a major operation at the Adams County Memorial Hospital last week, was reported very low yesterday. Pneumonia developed Sunday and, although Mrs. Lose showed some improvement today, she remains in a critical condition.
