STATE MOVES TO RECOVER MONEY

Steps Taken To Recover $300,000 From Officials And Former Officers

Indianapolis, Ind., April 19.—(United Press)—The state of Indiana is taking steps to recover nearly $300,000 from officials or former officials charged with irregularities in reports of the state board of accounts.

Suits have already been filed by Attorney General Gilliom in a number of cases and additional suits are soon to be started, it was learned today.

Charges of irregularities were standing against officials at the close of the last fiscal year on Sept. 30 for a total of $271,887.51.

The officials named in the charges ranged from a former state auditor to township trustees.

Recently the state board of accounts certified additional charges of $11,625 for collection as provided by law. Other reports still to be made by the accounts board will bring the total close to the $300,000 mark.

The largest single item is that against Harry B. Smith, former adjutant general of the Indiana National Guard, for $30,690.13.

Smith was indicted by the Marion county grand jury on the basis of the accounts board report charging irregularities and the case is still pending.

Another charge is for $7,319 against Otto Klaus, former state auditor for alleged irregularities in expenditures and allowances. The case of Klaus has been pending since April 20, 1923.

The Indianapolis Sanitary Board is charged with an overpayment of $4,229 on a contract.

There is still standing a cash shortage of $23,537 against J. W. Chapman, former treasurer of Parke county who committed suicide following discovery of his defalcation.

The state is pressing collection suits against James Adams, former treasurer of Knox county, for $10,131.24, according to Frank Greenwald, deputy attorney general, in charge of the litigation.

Other large charges on which suits are to be brought include:

Edwin Hanley, former controller of Michigan City, $11,200 in excess salaries.

John Keeler, former deputy treasurer of Starke county, $3,370 cash shortage charged.

Let C. Runnels, trustee of Olive township, St. Joseph county, $5,164 in alleged illegal payments.

E. A. Zeltzer, St. Joseph county highway superintendent, $4,418 in alleged illegal allowances.

New collection suits will be filed from time to time as rapidly as pending actions are decided, according to Greenwald.

OBITUARY

Rufus Franklin Ramsey, son of Jesse and Katherine Ramsey, was born in Van Wert county, Ohio, January 15, 1883, departed with this life April 11, 1926, at hospital, Decatur, Indiana. Age 43 years, 2 months, 27 days. He was united in marriage to Ella Knaul, December 25, 1908, to this union were born five sons, Ivan, Russel, Kenneth, Marion and Paul; two daughters, Cleona and Naoma, all living. He was preceded in death by his mother, two brothers, Otis and Charles, two sisters, Emma and Josephine. At the age of 12 years he joined church, but later he felt the need of a Savior and was converted. Some time later he sought and obtained the enter blessing of sanctification and has remained a faithful child to his Heavenly Father until death. He was serving as Sunday school superintendent when called to his reward. Besides the widow and children he leaves also his aged father, one brother, Edward Ramsey, of Van Wert; four sisters, Mrs. Al Kreiser, Van Wert; Mrs. James Schmuck, St. Joe, Mich.; Mrs. Albert Burke, Decatur, Ind.; Mrs. Aubrey Wyre, Sturgis, Mich., and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

In any affliction or sickness he would chant some of the many songs he loved so well to sing: The Toil of the Road will Seem Nothing, When We Get to the End of the Way, This World is Not My Resting Place, This World is Not My Home, My Sheep Knows My Voice, Because He Loved Me So, I'm Bound for That Beautiful City, For There is No Night There, and many others. He was calm and silent through his suffering and passed away with a beautiful smile of peace as he often said that death was nothing to him as he longed to see his Savior and was willing to sacrifice his life to bring his loved ones to Jesus.

Dearest Rufus, thou hast left us, And our loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God that has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal. Yet again we hope to meet thee When the day of life was fled, When in Heaven with joy to greet thee Where no farewell tear is shed.

C. M. T. C. QUOTA NOT FILLED YET

Indiana Expected To Fill Its Quota Of 1,396 Before June 1

Columbus, Ohio, April 19.—While enrollment for the Citizens' Military Training Camps in Indiana has not made the rapid strides that it did last year, Lieut. Col. Francis W. Glover, Fort Wayne, Fifth Corps Area C. M. T. C. officer, expressed his confidence today that Indiana will reach its quota of 1,396 applications before June 1, the scheduled time for closing the campaign.

Statistics compiled at corps area headquarters April 9, show that Indiana had obtained a total of 364 applications, or slightly over 26 per cent of its quota. At the same time last year Indiana was credited with a total of 577 applications, or more than 42 per cent of its quota.

Col. Glover points out, however, that these figures need cause no alarm because of the fact that the other three states of the corps area, Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia, as well as the other eight corps areas of the country, are behind in the number of applications received this year. A consolidated enrollment report of all corps areas issued by the War Department, March 20, shows that only 8,779 applications have been received as compared with 11,276 at the same time in 1925.

No particular reason for the slowness of applications this year is given by the Colonel except the lingering cold weather. Young men, he believes, will respond in increasing numbers to the call of the training camps with the coming of summer and its accompanying urge for sports and outdoor life.

The Colonel also observes that applicants this year are more inclined to "stick." In previous years when applications came in with greater rapidity the difficulty has been the number of declinations that followed. A boy would make application for the camp without first completing his plans for the summer with the result that he would later find that he either had to work or attend school during the training period.

Thus far this year only two declinations have been received in the Fifth Corps Area, the Colonel said, as compared with 50 of the same time in 1925. As a consequence, Col. Glover venture the opinion that young men are taking more time on their applications and beginning to consider the C. M. T. C. with greater seriousness, which is what the War Department most desires.

Seymour — S. B. Lowe, deputy prosecuting attorney, held that display of pocket flasks in show windows is not a violation of the Wright bone dry law.

Marion — Three dance hall proprietors will appeal from fines levied because they kept open on Sunday in the face of an order of Sheriff Rembarger for them to comply with Sunday blue laws.

Judith of BLUE LAKE RANCH

COPYRIGHT BY CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

WHAT did you say about the new woman being a type? Well, hardly! She may be short-haired, because a majority of women are that today, but she is far from being, in generality, the strong-jawed, hard-visaged, masculine appearing figure which the cartoonists represent her to be. She is as numerous and as interesting in her variety as woman has ever been.

Get acquainted with Judith, the charming little boss of Blue Lake Ranch. You will meet a new woman, a really brand-new sort, one—in this respect not unusual—who would rather be a woman than a man, but, called upon to do a man's part, does it thoroughly. Circumstances called her into a unique line of endeavor. She carried it through in a man's way, the only way it could be done, but she made it more effective by some fascinatingly feminine touches.
