cence and purity deserves this badge of the church. Parents should bend the young life toward God and the church. Too many times we leave them to the evil influences of the world.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings lasting relief

Don't let constipa-

and sap your health and vigor. Let Mr. Bove's experience point the way to sure relief.

"The writer was suffering from the worst kind of an attack of constipation, and was filling himself to the neck with all kinds of physic, which only gave me temporary relief and many times made me worse other than better. Since eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN for breakfast every day I have had no trouble whatever."

DAVID B. BOVE,
Bolivar, N. Y.

Wholesome Comedy, 'Pigs', Is Coming To Majestic

Clean, wholesome fun is paramount in "Pigs," John Golden's comic romance of youth, and by the great masses of playgoers who cherish recitations of "Lightnin'," "The First Year," "Thank-U" and "Turn to the Right" it will be enjoyed with the same whole-hearted enthusiasm.
"Pigs," with Wallace Ford, Nydia Westman, May Buckley, Gertrude Augrade and the original New York cast makes its bow at the Majestic Theatre Wednesday afternoon, June 16.

Without revealing the relation of "Pigs" to the plot, curiosity as to appropriateness of the title can be allayed by assurance that it has no reference to ill-bred or greedy species of the human race. The fact that nothing so unpleasant has been found in a Golden play should dispel any such suspicion. In this case "Pigs" really are pigs because a litter of juvenile porkers figure prominently in the development of the plot. The authors, Anne Morrison and Paterson McNutt, have made them real important players.

A love story as fragrant as mossoms from an old-fashioned garden provide "Pigs" with its high lights of romance, adventure, humor and gentle pathos. Its principals, Thomas Atkins, Jr., and Mildred Cushing, are adolescent types of the sort that Booth Tarkington created in "Seventeen" and "Clarence"—a boy and a girl in the throes of "puppy love." They are thrilled by visions of a wedding, a vine-covered bungalow and a bank account, and right there is where the pigs scamper in. In the unfolding of an ingenious plot the porcine brood are used as a short cut to wealth; much to the surprise of the Atkins family circle. Incidentally, the Atkins family is about as faithful as a cross-section of the middle-class home group as the American stage has known—not excepting "The First Year." The author of the latter play, Frank Craven, has staged "Pigs."

"Pigs" will be presented exactly as it ran for forty-one weeks at the Litle Theatre, New York, and six months at the Cort Theatre, Chicago.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC

Persons using the sand pit north ers, but those who go in swimming of ordinary decency. Violators will be prosecuted.
