Kelly Family Re-union

On Sunday July 18, the Kelly family met at Frank Boehm's grove in the southern part of Adams county, for their annual family re-union. The morning of the day was ideal for an outdoor gathering but about the noon hour, there came up a rain which caused those gathered for the festivities to repair to the home of Jacob Daugherty, just across the line in Jay county, where the program for the afternoon, as arranged by the committee in charge was carried out. The threatening weather, especially in the afternoon, undoubtedly kept many away, but a good number were present and, from all appearances, enjoyed the occasion very much. Those present, were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Daugherty and Junior Ford, Joe Witsel and wife, Miss Lottie Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob M. Kelly and son Virgil, Mr. and Mrs. John Rumble and sons Rufus and Edgar, and grand children George and Robert, Julia and Arnil Merrill, Edward Rumble and wife and son Harold, Earl and Pearl Banter, L. R. Boehm, Emma Boehm, Beatrice Boehm, Helen Boehm, Edith Boehm, and J. O. Boehm, James Miller Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Clem Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Switzer, John W. Walker and wife, Mrs. Albert Ray and family, Mr. R. M. Peerbower, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ford and family, Viggel, Beryle, Ivan and Ruth, Rev. and Mrs. Rash, Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Weaver and children, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ashbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Kelly, Harry Grown and wife and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ford and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Musich, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Erickson, Jane Erickson, Miss Lila Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Meyer, Jesse L. Cook and wife and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. George Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Q. H. Hockenberry, Miss Wilma Kelly and Seymour Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Clark F. Fink.

The next reunion of the family will be held at Maple Grove church in Jefferson township, Adams county. All present expressed a desire to be present at the next annual event. Those in charge of the program and entertainment wish to express their thanks to Mr. Frank Boehm for the use of his splendid grove and also to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Daugherty, for the use of their home for this occasion, and to all who in any way contributed to the success of this reunion and entertainment.

The Mary and Martha Sunday school class of the M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. Lulu Swearingner, 304 Marshall street, this evening, Tuesday, at 7:30 o'clock. It is desired that every member be present as there will be important business.

Several friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. C. Musser, on Second street, recently, to bid farewell to Mrs. Musser's sister, Mrs. M. A. ### Brames-Schmitz

The St. Mary's Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding this morning at eight-thirty o'clock, when Miss Constance Anna Schmitz became the bride of Mr. David Joseph Brames. Rev. Father Nicholas Allgeier, of Beson, cousin of the groom, received the vows of the double ring ceremony. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. L. A. Holthouse and Mrs. J. Q. Neptune sang "Night Folds Her Starry Curtain Round." Lohengrin's and Mendelssohn's wedding marches were played by Mrs. Holthouse for the entrance of the bride party. Miss Salome Schmitz, sister of the bride, attended as flower girl, the Misses Mary Colchin and Helen Schmitz, bridesmaids, and Miss Geraldine Smith, maid of honor took their places at the altar and the bride entered on the arm of her father. The bride was charming in a gown of white georgette, fashioned with a yoke of val lace. The skirt had inserts of val lace in diamond pattern. Her veil fell from a crown of lace and orange blossoms. She wore white kid footwear and elbow length gloves and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The flower girl wore a dainty frock of crisp orchid organza trimmed with satin ribbon and carried a basket of sweet peas and roses. Miss Helen Schmitz wore yellow georgette and taffeta made with basque waist and full skirts white kid footwear, head band of silver leaves and carried Ophelia roses. Miss Colchine wore a dress of coral taffeta and maline fashioned along the same lines, a wreath of silver leaves in her hair, white kid footwear and carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses. The maid of honor wore Nilo green georgette over satin, with dainty edgings of val lace and carried an exquisite bouquet of pink roses. The groom's attendants were Benedict Brames, brother of the groom, and Elmer Minnick. The ushers were Luke Brames, brother of the groom, and Maurice Minnick. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents for the members of the immediate families and a few intimate friends. The table was laid with white linen and silver and a centerpiece of sweet peas and roses. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmitz, 213 South First street. Until recently she was associated with the Citizens Telephone Company. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brames of Monroeville. He is employed by the International Harvester Company. After July 25 Mr. and Mrs. Brames will be at home at 1026 Echart

Street, Fort Wayne.

Out of town guests who attended were Mr. John Schmitz and daughter, Anna, of Dayton, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brames, of Monroeville, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brames, of Monroeville, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitt, of Columbia City, and Rev. Father Allgeier, of Beson.
