Large baskets of cut roses, gladioli, daisies, zinnias, cosmos and snapdragons were used as a note of decoration in the entertaining rooms of the Schafer home, on West Monroe street, Monday afternoon, when the Misses Gretchen Schafer, and Kathryn and Helen Dorwin united in entertaining at a luncheon-bridge. The small tables had as their centerpieces bowls of shasta daisies. The place and tally cards were clever scenes. Miss Josephine Archbold assisted the hostesses in serving the delicious three-course luncheon.

Four games of Bridge were played and Miss Veronica Anker won high score and was awarded first prize. Miss Gretchen Kocher won second prize and Mrs. Herman Myers was awarded the consolation. Out-of-town guests includtreasurer. The next reunion will be held at Edgewater Park, Celina, Ohio.

The Philomath Bible Class will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Singleton Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. Following the business and lesson a weiner roast will be enjoyed.

Why is it that in New York, a city of six million inhabitants, no buddy seems to cut any ice, or git ther names in th' newspapers, but th' Whitneys, Astors, Vanderbilts and Stokeses? It sometimes takes nearly a month after th' average divorce t' tell who wuz t' blame.—Abe Martin, Indianapolis News.

For Charitable Relief

Indiana, Ind., Aug. 10.—(United Press)—Indiana spent $840, 552.51 for charitable relief during 1925, it was learned today following the release of the report by the state board of charities.

CATHOLICS ARE CONCENTRATING ON BOYCOTT NOW

has not slackened, and hundreds of meetings, held in private homes, attest the sincerity with which Catholics, especially women members of the churches, are now answering the call.
Meanwhile we intend to provide places for all priests now cast out of the churches.

Mexico City, Aug. 10.—The Catholic clergy has been responsible for revolutions through out the world, secretary of labor Morones declared here during a debate on the religious struggle in which he explained that the government had not attacked religion, but the priests. He said there was a connection between the clergy and international Catholics which had resulted in revolution.

"Who governs Mexico, the vatican or the revolutionary government?" Monroe asked.

"If the vatican is permitted to ignore the government we will have gone backward 100 years."

Marone's opponent in debate was a young lawyer named Lewis Leer, who, appeared for the league in defense of religion.

Rev. And Mrs. Loose Leave For Vacation

The Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Loose left yesterday for a two weeks' vacation motor trip. They went to Fort Wayne yesterday evening and today planned to motor to Monroe, Michigan where they expect to spend several days at a lake. They will visit in Detroit, Michigan, before returning home.

Rev. Loose, who is pastor of the Evangelical church in this city, returned last Saturday from Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, where he attended the International Council School of Religious Education, which was in session there for two weeks. There was a total attendance, of 120 persons, fifteen of whom were from Indiana.
Those who attended the school included ministers, school teachers, business men and other leaders in religious education.

INDIANA DEATH RATE INCREASES

Number Of Deaths In 1925 Is More Than 1,000 Great- er Than 1924 Number Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 10.—(United Press)—The death rate in Indiana is on the increase according to a report issued by the Department of Commerce.

The 1925 figures show that 38,632 people lost their lives during the year.
These figures are more than one thousand greater than the 37,162 of 1924.

The 1925 death rate was 1,284.4 per 100,000 population as compared to 1, 223.7 in 1924.

Leading in the increase were influenza, nephritis, and diarrhea.

Five hundred nine persons were killed in automobile accidents, 293 in railroad accidents, 113 in street car accidents, 112 in mine accidents, 71 in machinery accidents, and 46 in airplane accidents.

The number of suicides increased from 407 in 1924 to 447 in 1925. Homicide.

sides decreased from 223 to 204.

Burns killed 155 persons, drowning 153, shooting 75, and falls 54.

Among diseases influenza was responsible for 1,485, pneumonia, 2,726, heart disease, 6,124, tuberculosis, 2, 544, and cerebral hemorrhage and softening, 3,243.

The number of deaths from influenza was twice the size of the 1925 list when 727 persons were victims of that disease.

Cal. E. Peterson was a business visitor in Fort Wayne last evening.
