The Tri Kappa Sorority met with Miss Lois Peterson last evening at her home in Jefferson street. Miss Joanne Gregory assisted in entertaining. Plans were made for a picnic to be held within the next few weeks. Three new patronesses were elected by the sorority. They are Mesdames French Quinn, F. E. France and C. E. Bell. During the social hour the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Bess Baker's section of the United Brethren ladies aid society will hold a sale of home-made cookies and doughnuts at the U. B. church, all day Friday. Orders may be made by calling 903 or 365.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Church parlors. All members are urged to attend.

Locals

Circuses still advertise for good, sober callopo players, so I guess it's still to be had if you want to pay the price and know the telephone number. There is human, but I admit it isn't. — Abe Martin, Indianapolis News.

Mrs. C. L. Johnson and daughter, Martha Faye, of Gary, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hocker and families of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Nichols and their guest, Richard O'Connor, of Detroit, Michigan, motored to Richmond today.

E. G. Wino, of Fort Wayne, called on business friends here this morning.

Miss Alice Williams and Regina Murphree spent the day in Fort Wayne visiting with friends.

County Auditor and Mrs. Martin Jaberg and children, Russell and Josephine, left today on a motor trip, their destination being Fargo, North Dakota, where they will visit Fred Olson and family. Hansel Foley, brother-in-law of Mr. Jaberg, will assist in the auditor's office during his absence.

Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Scherry and family, of Orrville, Ohio, stopped here for a day's visit with friends and relatives before going to Lake Higgins, Michigan, where they will spend two weeks. Rev. Scherry is a former resident of Magley.

Guests Begin Arriving At Summer White House

Paul Smith's N. Y., Aug. 11.—(United Press)—With the arrival of General Lord, director of the budget, the executive summer entertainment season has begun at White Pine camp. More than a score of distinguished guests will visit the President and Mrs. Coolidge for social or political reason. Secretary Hoover will come on Friday for a week-end sojourn at the summer White House.

The President's visitors are left to seek their own diversion in fishing, motoring, open air bowling, tennis, swimming and golf. Six Cabins are available for guests.

Those who care for fishing, the President's favorite recreation, may accompany him. Mrs. Coolidge often invites her guests to ride with her on automobile trips which are a daily occurrence here.

WOOLLEN AND BALL GREETED BY MANY VOTERS

To Geneva where dinner was served in Wegmiller's cafe, after which a meeting was held in that town.

Tour Wells County, Also
From Geneva, the local people returned to this city and the rest of the party, accompanied by district chairman Virgil Simmons, of Bluffton, went to Wells county where the Woollen-Ball party will spend the rest of today.

Great interest was shown in Mr. Woollen's candidacy at every stop made and he and Mr. Ball both gave impressive talks. The democratic campaign in the entire county will not open until the latter part of September, it was said today by those in charge, but the meetings today were held in order to give the voters an opportunity to meet the two candidates, and also the county candidates. When the men return later in the fall, a more intensive tour of the entire county will be made.

SEVERAL ISSUES AT STAKE IN FOUR STATE PRIMARIES

W. Underwood, had a substantial lead over John H. Bankhead, his nearest opponent.

Roth Graves and Dick were backed by the Klan.
In Arkansas, John E. Martineau, attacked as a wet during the campaign was leading Governor Tom. J. Terral, supported by the anti-saloon league, in the democratic primary race for Governor.

Nebraska issues were mostly local. Governor Adam McMullen, candidate for re-nomination, was leading his two opponents in the republican race. Charles Bryan, brother of the late William Jennings Bryan, was unpopular for the democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Two Doctors Trying To Obtain Human Offspring From Female Chimpanzee

Biarritz, France, Aug. 11.—(United Press)—Biologists and theologians are pondering the possible affect on christian teachings of the experiment now being made by doctors Serge and George Voronoff to obtain biologically human offspring from a female chimpanzee.

Dr. George Voronoff, brother of the famous rejuvenation specialist, said to the united press today that "it was impossible to say a single word for at least a month beyond my brother's recent statement in Stockholm, in which he said biologically human offspring might result from the experiment."

"For the present", he continued, "I am unable to say whether the artificial fecundation succeeded, I am going to Paris soon to consult my brother."

Aged Men Fight Duel

Sweetwater, Tex., Aug. 11.—(United Press)—A death duel in which the aged participants used automatic rifles was fought at Camp Spring near here between W. S. Reed, 65, and J. D. Ware, 70. The duel followed a quarrel between the two men over employment of one of Ware's sons by Reed.

There were no witnesses to the tragedy but Ware was found barely alive, and told of the shooting before he died. The men had fired at close range and had emptied their rifles at each other.

Both Reed and Ware are survived by large families.

Buys Store At Rockford
N. W. Abbott, of Craigville, has bought the Keopple & Street grocery store at Rockford, Ohio. Mr. Abbott and his son, Melvin, will move to Rockford, Ohio, at once.

TEXAS GOVERNOR TO TAKE PART IN RUN OFF ELECTION

November 1925".
She declared that the Klan raised money to be sent to San Antonio and Rio Grande country to "employ people to intimidate and if necessary offer violence to priests and nuns."

Donahay Nominated Again

Columbus, O., Aug. 11.—(United Press)—Gov. A. V. Donahay and Myers C. Cooper for governor and farmer Senator Atlee Pomerene and Senator Frank B. Willis for United States senator were leading as incomplete returns from the primary election were tabulated today.

Cooper went into the lead over Thad Brown for the republican gubernatorial nomination by an overwhelming plurality in Cincinnati, his home. He had 76,573 votes to Brown's 74,352 in 44,402 precincts. Governor Donahay was ahead of his three opponents by approximately a four to one vote in the democratic race.

Pomerene led Supreme Court Justice Florence E. Allen by nearly 6,000 votes for the democratic nomination for United States senator. Willis, republican incumbent, had a 23,000 vote lead over his nearest rival.

Klan Wins In Alabama

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 11.—(United Press)—Hugo L. Black apparently had been nominated for the U. S. senate and Bibb Graves was leading in the race for governor as returns trickled in today from yesterday's primary election. Both were endorsed by the Ku Klux Klan. Graves charged in the campaign that his opponents favored Al Smith for president.

Incomplete and unofficial figures from approximately 400 out of the 1,500 precincts in the state gave Graves a lead of about 1,500 over Charles S. McDowell, his nearest opponent. Carmichael and Patterson were trailing.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 11.—(United Press)—Judge John E. Martineau held a lead of 11,729 votes over Gov. Tom Terral in the democratic gubernatorial race in Arkansas, incomplete returns from 1,286 of the state's 2,009 precincts showed today.

Martineau's total was 122,041 to Terral's 110,312.

Poincare's Project Is Adopted By Big Majority

Paris, Aug. 11.—(United Press)—Wild disorder, fist cuffs and the appearance of soldiers in the hall at Versailles where the National assembly was in session yesterday culminated last night in adoption of Premier Poincare's project to make amortization of the debt a part of the French constitution. The project was adopted by a big majority. The vote was 671 to 144.

Illinois Primary Probe To Be Reopened Next Month

Chicago, Aug. 11.—(United Press)—Reopening of the senate investigation into primary campaign expenditures in Illinois was announced here last night by chairman Jim Reed, Mo., of the committee.

On his way to Kansas City from Detroit, Reed made known that the committee would resume its inquiry in Chicago to hear Percy D. Coffin regarding sums collected and spent by the Small-Lundin organization and also to question E. J. Davis, superintendent of the better government association about contributions from Sen. McKinley, unsuccessful candidate in the republican senatorial primary.

Reed indicated that the inquiry would be re-opened late in September.

Army Store Is Robbed

Gary, Ind., August 11.—(United Press)—Police of Gary today are searching for two unmasked bandits who entered an army store here late yesterday, held up the proprietor and three cashiers and escaped with $8,000 in currency.

They evaded police in a high powered car, heading toward Chicago.

Bandits Rob National Bank

Woodmere, N. Y., Aug. 11.—(United Press)—Three bandits held up the Hewlett-Woodmere national Bank here today, escaping with loot estimated at between $20,000 and $30,000.

Whiting—Inspired by what police believe was "Corn whisky", a local man tried to whip the local national guard unit single handed. His gigantic campaign was halted when a police officer appeared and forced an armistice. He is now in the city "guard house" considering peace terms.

Crowdsville — While driving through this city tourists were surprised by the shouts of pedestrians who ran down the street after them. An investigation showed the rear door of their car had opened and a child had tumbled out.
