Evening Worship, Salem 7:30
Prayer meeting at Pleasant Mills, 7:30
Next Sunday at Pleasant Mills is Communion Sunday. We hope that all the membership will present themselves at the Lord's Table. This is a holy hour when vows are renewed, confessions made and decisions registered. "As oft as ye shall do this in remembrance of Me" is the request of the Master. If you have forgotten Him in your life, get back to Him.

Next Monday Aug. 16 is the beginning of the Epworth League Institute at Epworth Forest. This is a mountain top week in the lives of all who are privileged to attend. Your soul needs feeding as well as your body or your mind. Come up and feed on the things your soul longs for.

You are welcome at the Pastor's cottage any time. Come up and look us over once, get acquainted with your own summer resort and patronize it. Several have almost decided to go Aug. 22. This is vacation Sunday on the Charge. Go somewhere to Church or come to Epworth Forest.

The pastor has cans from the Hospital in Fort Wayne. These are for distribution to be filled and returned for the Booth Festival. We had about $20 worth last year. Let's do much better this time. God has blessed us, let us bless some one else who is denied the blessings of health.

Musselman of Flora, Ind. The Rev. Musselman is a successful evangelist and an interesting speaker. He will be assisted by the pastor and a corps of other workers. Good congregational singing and special music will feature. The church earnestly invites the public to come and worship.

Pleasant Dale Church
Revival meetings will begin Sunday, August 15, at the Pleasant Dale church of the Brethren. The meetings will begin each evening at 8 o'clock. They will be in charge of the Rev. A. P.

Regular Dancing Class to-night, Saturday evening, Music by Fort Wayne Night Owls. Sunday night music by Ray Finkhouse. Sun-Set Park Dance Pavilion.
