NOTICE

CITY WATER USERS

On account of water conditions many people are compelled to use city water for washing and are inconvenienced because of its hardness. To overcome this add one teaspoonful of Rub-No-More Washing Powder (the Original 5c Water Softener) to each gallon of city water. IT SAVES SOAP.

Besides its 15 household uses it is the only cleanser that will clean sinks and tubs and dissolve upon rinsing. No sand left to clog drain pipes.

WILLIAM H. TAFT DISCUSS CRIME SITUATION IN U. S.

responsible and will insist on the organization of protection from criminals.

He expressed himself further as not greatly alarmed at the element of "Maudlin Sentimentality" that charged crowds to cheer criminals and send them roses. Such persons, he said, belong "to the lunatic fringe of society." The interview took place on the porch of the Chief Justice's charming cottage looking out over the silvery waters of the St. Lawrence to the Gray Blue Hills beyond.

The Chief Justice, America's only living ex-president, appeared outwardly in excellent health and splendid spirits, though overwork and exertion have impaired his health of late and caused him to avoid unduly heavy tasks. But his recuperation is proceeding apace in the crystal air of the cottage. He is occupied part of the day with preparations for the fall term of the court.

It is only a slightly different Mr. Taft from the one the writer knew before the war. Some of the waistline has disappeared, but his face and his carriage belie the 69th birthday that he will celebrate here with his family and friends next month. Moreover there is the same infectious smile the nation knew so well in his white house years, the same charm of personality that has won him the love and respect of his own countrymen and the admiration of his neighbors in this Canadian Colony where for twenty-five of the past summer Mr. Taft and his kin have made their summer home.

Two State Banks At Pennville Consolidate

The state bank charter board has granted a charter to the Pennville State Bank, which was recently consolidated with the People's State Bank of Pennville.

It was decided to consolidate the banks several weeks ago following numerous attempts at holdups at the People's State Bank, which was located near the edge of the town. The Pennville State Bank is more centrally located and it is believed bandits will not try their holdup work so freely there.

The last holdup staged was that tried by two Michigan youths, Clyde Beasley, the cashier, knocked a gun from the bandit's hand and chased him from town. Both bandits were later arrested and taken to Portland where their cases are still pending.

Progress backed by service! This is the new symbol of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), chosen as the official trade-mark of the Company for all its products.

The trade-mark and the symbol are new—but the creed they express is old.

To supply the petroleum needs of the people of the Middle West with exact knowledge and high skill—to offer an ever better and ever greater service to the individual and the community. This is, and has been, the constant ideal of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) since its foundation.

This ideal has permitted no wavering of faith or loyalty or toil, and has allowed no smug satisfaction with success already achieved. Each improvement has been but a stepping stone to the next.

The torch of progress backed by service symbolizes this ideal, representing its past achievement, promising its future fulfillment.

The never ceasing efforts of a Board of Directors of 10 men who devote their entire time to the affairs of this Company and to no other—the capital of 50,000 stockholders—the daily efforts of 29,000 employees—are behind this symbol. The products of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) have won their reputation for dependability and superior quality through sheer merit.

Throughout the length and breadth of the Middle West the torch of service flames its message—a message that is directed to each of the thirty million people in this vast territory—a message that is meant for you.

Through the years the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has held aloft the torch of progress and backed it by unfaltering service.

In the years to come, this Company may be depended upon to keep it ever in the fore. This trade-mark is a symbol and a promise.
