MOLLA MALLORY GOLF TOURNEY AGAIN CHAMPION IS UNDER WAY

Court-worn Veteran Beats Elizabeth Ryan in National Tennis Play

New York, Aug. 24.—(United Press) Once again Molla Mallory is the "American girl" and not the "Norwegian woman."

When the court-worn veteran left the courts yesterday after beating Elizabeth Ryan and becoming the national champion for the seventh time, she jumped up and down like a child with a new doll and gave the crowd the widest smile she ever has shown.

She had reason to be proud of a 4-6, 6-4 and 9-7 victory but—behind her smile and her display of happiness is a story of the hardest fight an athlete ever made to come back.

Mrs. Mallory basked in the light of a national idol until after seven hard and unsuccessful campaigns she began to slip. Then her court conquests were buried from public notice.

She was hurt in 1920 when the American Olympic committee would not fight for a suspension of international rules that would permit her to play with the American team. The United States officials said she was not an American girl and that she would have to play for Norway as a Norwegian.

She was hurt even more this year when she was not named on the woman's tennis team that played in the Wightman cup matches. She went to Europe, as the association puts it, "unofficially" and she played at Wimbledon as Chick Evans did in the amateur golf championship at Muirfield—an American, yes, but an outsider.

Just a few minutes after she had won the championship at Forest Hills, she remarked—"I'm the American girl again."

The display of courage and determination that Mrs. Mallory made in winning the third and deciding set after Miss Ryan had smashed away to a lead of four-love in games was as magnificent as anything ever seen on any field of sport.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Urban Shocker, New York Yankee pitcher, who was a little bit better than Emil "Dutch" Leyson, young Cleveland hurler. Shocker won the pitchers battle 3 to 2 and the Yankees led the American League by 10 full games.

The Boston Red Sox, 9-1.

Using a wild pitch by Marberry and Senator errors as a wedge the St. Louis Browns pried loose from a 4-4 tie in the eighth and beat Washington, 8-4.

The St. Louis Cardinals rested in the first place in the National League by a single point as a result of yesterday's games. The Cards were prevented from playing by rain, while the former leading Pirates split a double header with the Brooklyn Robins. Brooklyn, using the former Pirate Captain Max Carey in center field, won the first 7-3 and without him lost the second 10 to 2.

By clustering hits in the third and fourth innings, the Philadelphia Athletics beat the Chicago White Sox, 4-1.

LOCAL GIRLS TO ENTER CONVENT

Misses Catherine Eiting and Mary Lengrich to Study at Fond Du Lac

Miss Catherine Eiting, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Eiting, and Miss Mary Lengrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lengrich, of southwest of the city, left today for Fond Du Lac, Wis., where they will enter the Convent of the Sisters of St. Agnes, and take up their studies, preparatory to joining the order. They were accompanied to Fond Du Lac by Miss Marcella Lengrich and Miss Rose Steigmeyer, the latter intending to visit there with her aunt, Sister M. Frederica, former Decatur girl. The Misses Eiting and Lengrich attended the local Catholic school and, since completing their studies here, have been employed at the Cloverleaf Creameries and at the G. E. plant.

Several Close Matches Are Played in First Round City Tournament

Several of the first round golf matches in Decatur's first city handicap golf tourney have been played and it is expected that the remaining first round games will be completed this week, so that the players left in the meet can square off for the second round, the first of next week.

Some of the scores of the matches already played have not yet been reported, but most of the matches have been very close, due to the handicap arrangement. A complete list of the first round games will be published as soon as the round is completed and the schedule for the second round will be announced then.

Several of the most prominent of local golfers still remain in the running, and, as the number narrows down, it is apparent that several dark-horses will have an even break for the honors with the more seasoned golfers.

Sunday and Monday were busy days at the temporary course, where the tourney is underway, and it is likely that several matches will be played every afternoon this week. One of the interesting matches yesterday was that between Dr. E. G. Coverdale and Dick Wertberger, both doped to have a good chance to win the tourney. The first round ended even and the second round was postponed until this afternoon because of darkness. Several other matches have been equally as interesting.

PREBLE NINE IS BLANKED

Preble, Aug. 24.—The Preble baseball team suffered its most disastrous defeat of the season, Sunday afternoon, when the fast Colored Giants, of Fort Wayne, took the locals into camp on the Preble diamond, 12-0. Winston, the dusty hurler for the visitors, was invincible. He struck out 13 Preble batters and allowed only seven scattered hits. Lindemann pitched for Preble and struck out seven visitors. Errors committed by the Preble team helped the visitors pile up their score. The locals made seven misplays in the field. Robinson connected for a three-base hit, the longest wallop of the game. Giants 12 0 0 2 3 0 4 0 2—12 3 2 Preble 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 7 7 class of exhibit.

The poultry exhibit will be the largest ever held in this county, due largely to the work of Willis Fonner, who has charge of that department. Mr. Fonner has secured hundreds of dollars worth of additional premiums from business men of the county, to be given to exhibitors from Adams county, only.
Other department heads also have been busy the last several days, working for the largest number of entries ever to be shown in local fair history.
The premium books give, in detail, all information desired by exhibitors.

The book includes a list of awards in each department, the name of the head of each department, and other valuable information. It was compiled by Mr. Swanson, of Fort Wayne.

THOUSANDS PAY THEIR TRIBUTE TO MOVIE STAR

Hardly had the doctors pronounced him dead than the tribute to his memory began.

Hundreds Pay Tribute
All night long cables came in from far parts of the world; telegrams brought other messages; but perhaps the greatest tribute was from the crowds which formed around the funeral parlors where the body was held, clamoring for one last look upon the dead.

George Ullman, Valentino's personal manager who was at the bedside of the actor for four days and nights in the last stages of Valentino's illness, today announced funeral plans for the actor.

The body will lie in state today from 4 p. m. to midnight, tomorrow from 9 a. m. to midnight, and on Thursday from 9 a. m. to midnight.

Thousands are expected to file past the casket of silver bronze, topped with glass, for a last look at the body, which will be dressed in evening attire.

Funeral services are to be held Monday at 10 a. m., at "the actor's church," the church of St. Malachi.

"I hope to have the body taken to Hollywood for burial," said Ullman. "I think he belongs there and hope to so persuade his brother."

The actor's brother, Alberto, is in Paris and as yet no word has been received from him.

Sorrow in England
London, Aug. 24.—News of Rudolph Valentino's death had penetrated to most of the remote spots of the world last night, and today the flappers and movie fans of many countries were mourning the dead actor. Great Britain especially shares the sorrow of Americans, for Rudy was known as well here as on the other side of the Atlantic.

Valentino's death was announced in British theatres yesterday and many were heard to sob as the death message appeared.

Pola Negri in Seclusion
Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 24.—Pola Negri was in seclusion here today, orders having been issued forbidding anyone to see her because of a condition of nervous exhaustion that followed Rudolph Valentino's death.

"I have lost not only my dearest friend, but the one real love of my life," she was quoted as saying.

Miss Negri, who was reported engaged to Valentino, insisted late yesterday on visiting the unfinished Beverly Hills mansion which Valentino had been constructing. She collapsed when informed of his death.

New York, Aug. 24.—New York woke up today to read in some of the morning papers a series of sensational rumors about the death of Rudolph Valentino.

They were:
That he had been shot in a quarrel.
That he had been struck in a fist fight and fatally injured.

That he had been poisoned by a jealous woman during a party.

However, the signed statements of the attending physicians, the application for a burial permit, and the statements of the attending physicians in the presence of witnesses, all were such as to disprove the theories and set down the actual cause of death as infection following gastric ulcers and appendicitis.

The district attorney's office said its attention had not been called to any of the rumors.

Exceptional Talent Secured For Grandstand Acts At Decatur Fair

includes rough but difficult acrobatic comedy bumps and falls, grotesque gambols, and frenzied rivalry in knockabout feats and seemingly impossible dare-devil stunts. Then, there is the Granadas remarkable achievements of a due with equilibrium thread of steel, introducing a pot for the highest expression of muscular discipline and skill.

The Grants, in an aerial act towering high in the air, performing a routine of sensational and thrilling feats. They introduce an amazing display of physical endurance and the Grants are rightly named "Masters of the Air."

NIGHT CLUBS IN CHICAGO CLOSED

Government Padlocks 41 Cabarets for Liquor Law Violations

Saxophones were still in 41 cabarets Chicago, Aug. 24.—(United Press) —Saxophones were still in 41 cabarets and night clubs here last night and padlocks on the door explained that liquor law violations had caused the government to close them for one year.

Included in the list of places closed was the Avalon, the midnight to dawn rendezvous of the gayest of Chicago's social set.

One hundred and ten other places must show cause why they should not be closed before Federal Judge Cliffe, who comes to these cases on his docket this week.

Get the Habit—Trade at Home, it Pays inseparable companions-

P.A. and jimmy-pipe joy

YES, indeed. Prince Albert and pipe-pleasure go together like "fair and colder," "Romeo and Juliet," "song and dance." Inseparable companions . . . in fair weather and foul. Wherever you see one, you see the other. Prince Albert means jimmy-pipe joy . . . precisely that!

P. A. is cool as picnic lemonade. Cool and consoling when problems press. Sweet and fragrant as wind-blown blossoms. Mild with a mildness that lets you smoke all you want, morning to midnight. Yet with sufficient body to let you know you are smoking. Nicely balanced!

You'll like the taste of this fine old pipe tobacco. More men have liked it than any other brand. This is a matter of record. Quality through and through. Real tobacco for real men. That's Prince Albert. Kind to your tongue and throat. Friendly in spirit and friendly in fact.

If you haven't smoked P. A., you can't possibly know how much deep-down satisfaction that old jimmy-pipe can give you. No matter how set you think you are, buy a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today. Tamp a load into your pipe and take a deep drag. Good? You said it!

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, round and half-round tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.
