Suit on Note

The Old Adams County Bank has filed a suit on a promissory note against Andrew and Peter Bailey, demanding judgment for $375. Attorneys Fruchte and Litter, of Decatur, are counsel for the plaintiff.

"Tropical Four" To Show At Adams Again Saturday

Responding to popular request "The Tropical Four," vaudeville entertainers have been engaged to appear at the Adams theatre again Saturday matinee and night. The act, which consists of Hawaiian music, dancing and comedy, made a big hit last night.

One show will be given at the matinee, and two shows at night. An entire change of program will be made and a thirty minute act will be presented. In addition free crackerjack will be given at the matinee. The feature picture will be Harry Carey in his latest success, "Driftin' Thru". Advt.

Ladies who are bothered with blackheads, pimples and rough skin, call at the Art and Beauty Shop, for a free demonstration with Je-Nee-Wa, almond brick. You will find a full line of this goods. 11x

Bandits Rob Two Banks Without Displaying Guns

Covington, Okla., Aug. 26.—(United Press)—Six bandits who systematically and quietly robbed two banks here late Wednesday were the objects of a posse hunt today while citizens discussed the unusual holdup methods employed by the six.

Without flourishing revolvers but reminding their victims they were well armed, two bandits entered one bank, locked 21 employees and customers in the vault and took all the money in sight, while two others staged a similar holdup in the bank across the street. Meanwhile, the other two bandits rode up and down the main street, in two automobiles.

The loss was estimated at $10,000.

KENTUCKY TAG LAW EXPLAINED

Governor Declares Trucks Are Tearing Up Kentucky Roads

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 26.—(United Press)—Kentucky is making war on truck drivers from other states who have no Kentucky license, because the trucks are tearing up Kentucky roads. Gov. Wm. Fields, declared in an interview with the United Press, here today.

"Agriculturists, salesmen and tourists will not be molested," said the governor. "The law is directed only at large commercial trucks which are damaging our roads to a great extent."

Governor Fields said he would shoulder full responsibility for the act which provides that all commercial vehicles driven into Kentucky from outside the state must have Kentucky license plates.

"It is my own idea," he declared.

The validity of the law will be tested before Chief Justice Thomas Harlan of Kentucky State court of appeals in suit to be filed here late this week, should the test prove that Kentucky is within her constitutional rights, officials will be instructed to continue making arrests, the executive said.

There will be one exception. Trucks going from New Albany Ind., to Louisville will not go over a foot of Kentucky roads and it will be left up to Louisville as to whether that city wants to levy its own tax.

"Mystery" Witness Heard In Mellett Murder Probe

Canton, O., Aug. 26.—(United Press) Steve Kascholk, "mystery witness" in the Don R. Mellett murder case, was to tell his story to the Starke county grand jury here this afternoon. Kascholk has been held in jail at his own request since his testimony was first given shortly after the publisher's assassination.

He feared underworld vengeance. Three men were involved in a plot against Mellett by Kascholk's story. They were Louis Mazer, formerly charged with murder; Patrick McDermott, fugitive witness and Ben Radner, once convicted bootlegger.

No Tax Reduction In Sight, Says Winston

Washington, Aug. 26.—(United Press)—No tax reduction is in sight "for the present," Acting Secretary of the Treasury Garrard Winston asserted today. He would not predict concerning future possibility of reduction.

Winston explained that it was the administration's policy to retire the public debt as rapidly as possible now during the period of prosperity, adding that the debt is being retired faster now than the Civil War debt was retired.
