CHAUTAUQUA HARPIST

RUTH HUTCHINS

The harp, considered by many the most beautiful of instruments, is the most difficult to master. Miss Ruth Hutchins of the Paramount Entertainers, who appears on the second day of our Chautauqua, is an artist who has attained the mastery of her instrument.

BAND DIRECTOR

V. E. DILLARD

With a thorough musical education and understanding, and a keen appreciation of artistic interpretation of music, V. E. Dillard, Director of Green's Band, brings to the Chautauqua this year musical programs that are outstanding. His experience of years as a Band Director enables him to bring out the best in each individual member of the organization and to develop an ensemble of an excellence that surpasses ordinary band programs. Mr. Dillard will personally direct the band at both the afternoon and the evening programs on the third day.

VESEY RETURNS TO FORT WAYNE

DENIES ELOPEMENT WITH STENOGRAPHER; SAYS HE WAS HUNTING A JOB

Fort Wayne, Aug. 30.—Dick Vesey, owner of the Hoosier Rubber Products company, of Mishawaka, which went into receivership last Thursday, arrived in Fort Wayne late last night and denied news stories to the effect that he had eloped with his stenographer, Miss Ruth Sleepy, formerly of Bluffton and Fort Wayne. He said he had been in Chicago in search of a position.

Vesey said that the girl left Mishawaka Thursday when the company was thrown into receivership and that he left for Chicago Friday morning. He attributed the troubles of his company to poor business conditions in the shoe and rubber heel industry and to the unexpected cancellation of his largest contract. He estimated the company's liabilities were between $8,000 and $10,000 with no assets.

He denied that he looted the company, saying that he had lost approximately $35,000 in the rubber heel manufacturing plant, which he established about a year ago. He said that he had been able to meet the pay roll heretofore, but when the Menzie Shoe company, of Fond Du Lac, Wis., which was under contract to take over the major portion of this production, cancelled the agreement Wednesday, he was unable to finance the business longer and he was forced to go into the hands of a receiver. He said that the Menzie company was his biggest customer, buying approximately $700 worth of rubber heels a day.
