that can be sold within the price range. It will not be connected with the main store building and will be maintained as a separate institution, Mr. Peterson said.

"This type of store has been remarkably successful in the east and mid-west and we expect it to do a huge business here," said Mr. Peterson. "Within the price range we can carry a wide list of goods."

"In the new store there will be an 80-foot soda fountain and five tables to eat four each, providing fountain service for 65 persons. It will be run at popular prices. There will be a 75-foot h reeshoe-shaped candy counter with a large stock of sweets. We shall have our own kitchen and our own officers every convenience for our customers will be provided."

"Some of the articles we will carry are: house furnishings, stationery, notions, radio and critical goods, underwear, hosiery, clothing, music, laces, ribbons and hundreds of other things."

"Most of the buying for this store will be done in carload lots to give the advantage of quantity purchases. We already have received several carloads of supplies and many more are on the way. This store will be opened in the near future and we confidently believe it will measure up with the best of the kind in the west."

"Mr. Peterson said he is much impressed with Spokane. He has brought his family here and has purchased a home at S1115 Grand boulevard."

the county agent as office help, a petition having been filed, asking that $600 be appropriated for this service.

The appropriation for "expense burial soldiers" was increased from $1,000 to $2,000. This was the only increase made by the board, all other changes being downward. County officials state that the appropriations have been "cut to the quick, and that, if any further cuts should be made by the state board of tax commissioners, it would seriously interfere with the financial operations of the county government."

Dismissed petitions for fair

The council dismissed the petition of the Northern Indiana fair association, asking $2,000 be appropriated for the payment of premiums in the agricultural, horticultural and live stock departments. No appropriation was made and the petition was dismissed.

Unless a remonstrance against the tax levies is filed with the county auditor by September 28, the rates fixed by the council will stand and become effective next year.

The total of the general budget, including the bridge and bond and interest funds will be less than $130,000.

lars over this year's budget, since the property valuation in the county is lower. The 2 1/2% levy for the highway repair fund will be raised about $90,000, it is estimated, which is less than the original estimate.
