Prayermeeting at Pleasant Mills
Thursday.....7:30
The Fall Campaign will begin next Thursday Sept. 16 at Bluffton. Good speakers are scheduled. Our people will be more than delighted to hear Dr. Henderson of Oberlin, Ohio. The program is for the forenoon, afternoon and night. The pastor hopes many will go to this meeting.
Monday Sept. 20 the pastors of the Decatur Sub-district will be at Pleasant Mills and Salem for a service in the evening. A service in each church at 7:30 P. M. Let us have the large attendance of the sub-district and the largest attendance. We can and you will help us do it. The program has strong speakers well worth your consideration and time.

Pleasant Mill's Ladies Aid meets September 15 at the church at 1:30 P. M. The ladies desire to settle up the fair bills and make a report. They appreciate the assistance of all helpers and patrons.

We had a nice display at the Booth Festival this year and the pastor and Epworth League desire to express their gratitude for donations. The amount of donation has not been learned yet.
Let us all begin now to make this fall and winter the best yet in the history of the church. Work, Pray and pay for success.

"PADLOCKED"

Rex Beach's famous story, at the Adams Theatre next Sunday And Monday

"PADLOCKED" is a story of paternal repression and its effect on a spirited young girl of today. Louis Moran, the wistful heroine of Stella Dallas, gives an inspired performance as the modern daughter, who braves the dangers and temptations of Broadway night life in pursuit of a dancing career. As a cabaret dancer she attracts the attention of the millionaire society set and becomes involved in a love triangle. An unexpected crisis develops when her father demands that she return home, and the subsequent events are charged with suspense and emotional appeal.
Noah Berry handles the exacting role of the bigoted father in his usual deft fashion; and Louise Dresser adds to her laurels with her effective delineation of a woman with a past. Adv.

Dancing class tonight. Saturday and Sunday will furnish lots of surprises. Mike and His Enemies of Gloom.
