Our people have been doing splendid giving both locally and for World Service. Yet there are a few that have not their name on the World Service Honor Roll. See that it gets on Sunday so our preacher brothers will not need call on you this week.

Let us all rally to the opening of the Community Bible Training school to be held in Decatur. Never before has there been a time when we need prepare ourselves more for the teaching of our Sunday school class and studying the managing end of the school. Shall we double our enrollment of last year?

We are now coming to the season fall. If any have neglected the church services, shall we get back now and get ready for our fall and winter program.

Let's look forward to Rally Day in our Sunday School. Our average attendance is better than last year but are we satisfied?

If you want a welcome to the house of God attend one of these churches, and you will meet people who are friendly to strangers within their gates. Our churches are being well filled at each service, and the pastor is preaching doctrinal sermons at each so that the people may more thoroughly understand God's word.

The people have remodelled the parsonage, and purchased a fine new heating plant, for which the pastor will hold a bake sale at Schmitt's meat market. These ladies deserve your support. If it is necessary, go out of your way to help them. The sale will begin about 8:00 A. M.

Prayermeeting at Pleasant Mills, Thursday, 7:00.

This week is the annual fall campaign. The pastors of the Decatur sub-district will be at Pleasant Mills and Salem Monday evening, Sept. 20 at 7:30. We are anxious to see you there. Live speakers will bring live topics and you will be glad you came.
We are working for the best attendance and collection of the sub-district and district. One team of speakers will be at Salem and another team will be at Pleasant Mills.

Let's get down to service for the Master in these early fall months.
What about Rally Day in the Sunday School? Oct. 17 is the date. Let's have a rally that will get every family and scholar out to Sunday school.
Some have broken their attendance habits and need an urgent invitation to come back. You give that invitation and let's see what you can do.
Let us give more time and effort to the Kingdom. If God did not give us any more attention than we sometimes give to Him we would be in a sad plight. Let's play fair. Let's have a tightening up in every department of the church. Resolve now that you will give of your best to the Master this winter.

Our sincerity is usually expressed in our collection envelope. Do not forget your next Sunday. Write a check for all overdue payments.

President And Family Return From Vacation

Washington, Sept. 17.—(United Press.)—They start delivering the Coolidges' milk and papers again tomorrow.

Everything has been put in readiness for the arrival of the executive family tomorrow night, after their en weeks sojourn in the Adirondacks.

All day a dozen men were putting the finishing touches on the job of house-cleaning.

Everett Sanders, the President's secretary, has returned from an extended trip through the West Indies where he recuperated from an operation he underwent in Boston early in the summer.
