Former Lima Coach Goes To Van Wert

Van Wert, Ohio, Sept. 22.—Raiph J. McGinnis, head coach at Central high school, Lima, for the past two years, has been employed to coach the Van Wert high school team, Supt. H. L. Sullivan announced today. He will be here tomorrow or the next day to take the place being vacated by Bob Moore who has resigned to go to Ellyria as physical director of the Y. M. C. A.

McGinnis is a graduate of Miami University where he was an all-star half-back under Coach George Little. McGinnis coached at Lima for two years. Besides his experience at Lima he coached one year at Davenport, Ia., and another at Morgan Hill Military Academy. Three years ago he turned down an offer as assistant coach at the University of Idaho.

After his two years at Lima Central high, McGinnis was re-employed but resigned to take advantage of a fellowship in a French university. He was in France for two months but returned recently on account of the illness of his mother who lives near Kingston, Ohio.

In addition to his football work at Lima, McGinnis produced a winning baseball team for that school. Besides athletics, the new coach will have charge of the high school classes taught by Moore.

Henry Selking Buys Home In Fort Wayne

Henry Selking, of Preble township, has purchased an attractive residence in Fort Wayne. It is located in a very desirable district, in the southwest part of the city. It is strictly modern and consists of seven rooms and a bath. Mr. Selking intends to move his family to Fort Wayne in the near future. Mr. Selking, Fred J. Cron, former owner of the house, and E. W. Heckman, Fort Wayne real estate agent, were in Decatur Tuesday and closed the deal.

Ten Hoosiers, At Least, Perish In Florida Storm

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 22.—(United Press).—Additional reports from the hurricane swept area of Florida showed that at least ten Hoosiers perished in the disaster.

The list of known dead included three persons from Evansville, two from Indianapolis and one each from Middletown, Muncie, Boonville, Richmond, and Logansport.

RAIN MAY CAUSE DELAY IN FIGHT

Dempsey-Tunney Bout May Be Postponed Until Friday If It Rains

Philadelphia, Pa. Sept. 22.—(United Press).—If rain, as forecast by the weather bureau, makes it impossible to stage the world's heavyweight championship battle between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney tomorrow night, the fight will take place Friday, Tex Rickard said today.

"If rain looks inevitable in the evening," we may postpone it without waiting for the ring to get soaked," Tex said.

Rain Is Forecast

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—(United Press).—Showers may mar the Dempsey-Tunney championship fight in Philadelphia tomorrow night.

The Weather Bureau's eastern Pennsylvania forecast today said:

Cloudy tonight and Thursday; probably showers. Slightly warmer in south portions tonight; cooler Thursday. Moderate southwest shifting to north and northeast wind.

of 120 miles an hour at its peak, he said. No estimate of the number of injured was given.

The coast guard cutter Talapoosa reported that three large foreign steamers had been driven aground and that it was landing all possible aid.

Heavy Damage At Mobile

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 22.—(United Press).—Property damage estimated at a million dollars was done in Mobile by the hurricane which struck here Monday night, but no loss of life occurred.

The wind has subsided and the barometer has gone up to near a normal level once more. The city, however, is menaced by high tides which threaten floods. Last night the water was up to the level of the wharves.

The tug Echo reached here after visiting the town of Fairhope, between Mobile and Pensacola, and reported $100,000 damage there but no lives lost.

SHORT SESSION HELD BY COUNCIL

ceived at the next meeting. Tires 40x12 of a guaranteed make, are required.

The matter of placing automobiles for sale on the streets in front of and around the different garages was brought to the council's attention and the matter left in the hands of the public safety committee.

The condition of the open sewer running between High street and Mercer avenue, south of the hospital, was brought up before the council and the matter referred to the street and sewer committee.

The council voted to pay the city's share for placing a curb on Studebaker street, in front of the South Ward school building. The school board will continue the improvement along the street.

The finance committee allowed the bills and the session adjourned.
