Drag Lake For Bodies Missing Game Wardens

Isheing, Mich., Oct. 7.—(United Press)—Dragging of Pickrel Lake for the bodies of Arvid Erickson and Emil Skoglund, missing game wardens, continued today.

Discovery of Skoglund's automobile near the lake has convinced searchers that the two men were murdered and their bodies tossed into the water.

Skoglund and Erickson left Gwynn a week ago Wednesday, hunting deer "headlighter" hunters.

Miss Williams, of Fort Wayne, attended Catholic Ladies Social Club party last night and was the guest of the Mrs. U. Deininger family.

who formerly worked on his mother's estate at Grand Anse Quebec. Stillman, known as Bud, is a senior at Princeton University. He confirmed the report of his engagement to the daughter of a Quebec lumberman, and said they would be married after his graduation next June.

The romance of Bud Stillman is the latest episode in the family history of the Stillmans, who have been in the news for years through the stormy quarrel between the former banker and Mrs. Anne U. Stillman, his wife.

Bud Stillman was his mother's staunch supporter through all the litigation.

Peaches And Mother Disappear; Browning Latches Key Still Out

New York, Oct. 7.—(United Press)—The latch key was still out today and so was "Peaches" Heenan Browning, 16-year-old wife of 59-year-old Edward W. Browning, millionaire real estate dealer.

Peaches and her mother disappeared after having announced yesterday that they were going to Canada "for a rest."

Browning issued a statement saying that he was still maintaining apartments at the fashionable Kew Gardens Inn and at the hotel Emerson "for Mrs. Browning and myself."

Browning's chauffeur revealed that "Mr. Browning said he'd give me

$1,000 if I found Mrs. Browning."

"Gee I'm a Lucky Guy"

"Good, old-fashioned common sense came to my rescue!"

I have written two checks—one to the Adams County Auto Co. for $538.68, and another to myself for $461.32. The one to myself GOES INTO THE BANK.

"I could have spent a thousand dollars for a car. I can afford it. But I happened to think of the Ford dealers' slogan—'Buy a Ford and spend the difference'—so I'm banking the difference for some real spending later on. I'm a lucky guy!"

The Ford is a commonsense car for commonsense people. People who know the value of money, and who buy transportation, like they do everything else, AT THE LOWEST COST. A Ford delivers the world's lowest cost transportation, with an unfailing dependability that has never been equalled by anything on wheels.

Ford Sales are greater this year than any year in history. Our sales have increased each month and today finds more Fords in Adams county than anytime in the history of the county. A real tribute to the good judgment of Adams county people.

All the New Models are on display at our sales room.
