"The Show-Off" is Best Comedy of Season

"The Show Off," the success of the Playhouse, New York, and classed as perhaps the greatest of all American comedies, will be the offering of the Wright Player at the Majestic theatre, Fort Wayne all of this week.

Audiences liked "The Show Off" Sunday matinee and night and indications are it will exceed in popularity many previous comedies offering of the company. It is as fast moving as "The Family Upstairs" and has the crackling lines of "Lafayette" and "The Two of the outstanding comedy dramas presented in Fort Wayne by the Wright Players.

Philip Brandon does exceptionally good work as the "Show Off" the town smart aleck who, despite his egotism and his self-sufficiency, really has a world of ability and impresses the audience with the thought that his own confidence will carry him to the goals he sets for himself.

"The Show Off" is a human show, with characters true to life and with a strong plot. It offers moments of pathos as a contrast to the roaring laughs of many of the lines and situations.

Bargain matinees will be offered at 25 and 50 cents on Wednesday and Saturday. Night prices remain, as usual, at 50 cents and 75 cents.

Early seat reservations are urged due to demand for seats for "The Show Off".

The settings provided for the attraction are unusually strong. Practically the entire cast is employed and all carry their roles well.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—(United Press)—The World's three cushion championship billiard tournament will be brought to a close here tomorrow night with a match between Otto Reisel of Philadelphia and Augie Kieckhefer of Chicago—A match that is expected to decide the championship.

A possibility of a three way tie including Reisel, Kieckhefer and Gus Copulos—a situation brought about by round Robin play—has developed but is considered unlikely.

Copulos is in second place with six won and two lost while Reisel and Kieckhefer lead with six and one.

Today's matches include:
Denton vs. Raimundo Campanoni.
Denton vs. Lockabaugh.

Kieckhefer vs. Copulos.
