GOOD CANDY

There is no candy that brings more joy than the old-fashioned molasses which we all pull in the kitchen.

Velvet Molasses Candy.—Take one cupful of molasses, three cupfuls of sugar, one cupful of boiling water and three tablespoonfuls of vinegar; when boiling add one-fourth teaspoonful of cream of tartar. Boil until, when tried in cold water, the mixture becomes brittle. Stir constantly during the last part of the cooking. When nearly done add one-half cupful of melted butter and one-fourth teaspoonful of soda. Pour into a baking pan well buttered and pull when cool enough. While pulling add any flavoring desired.

Maple Sugar Candy.—Break one pound of soft maple sugar into pieces, put into a saucepan with three-fourths of a cupful of thin cream, one-fourth cupful of boiling water. Bring to the boiling point and boil until a soft ball is formed when tried in cold water. Remove from the fire, beat until creamy, add two-thirds of a cupful of walnut meats and pour into a buttered tin. Cool slightly, then mark off into squares.

Chocolate Caramels.—Put two and one-half tablespoonfuls of butter into a kettle; when well melted add two cupfuls of molasses, one cupful of brown sugar and one-half cupful of milk. Stir until the sugar is dissolved, and when the boiling point is reached add three squares of chocolate, stirring constantly until the chocolate is melted. Boil until, when tried in cold water, a firm ball may be formed in the fingers. Add a teaspoonful of vanilla just after taking from the fire. Turn into a buttered pan to cool and mark off into squares.

Peanut Nougat.—Shell and remove brown skins from one quart of peanuts, sprinkle with salt. Put one pound of sugar in a smooth pan on the range and stir until completely melted, stirring constantly; add the peanuts and pour into a buttered pan; mark off into squares.

Potato Salad With Cheese Dressing.—Add to a well-beaten egg one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, one-half teaspoonful of cornstarch, one teaspoonful of mustard and one-fourth cupful each of vinegar and water. Cook over hot water until thick, then add one new-eaten egg. Cool, and pour over sliced cooked potatoes. The addition of celery and chopped sweet pepper makes an improvement.

Polish Salad.—Shred one pound of cooked game or poultry, moisten with oil and cider vinegar, season with pepper and salt. Allow it to stand for three hours to marinate. Arrange on a bed of lettuce and garnish with four cooked egg yolks passed through a wire sieve. Chop the whites and use as a garnish.

Celery Salad.—Fill the tender stalks of white celery with seasoned cheese, cut into inch lengths and serve on lettuce with a French dressing.

Our greatest chefs agree that the salad is a most important factor in the dinner or luncheon menu. They may either make or mar the meal. The following are some you may enjoy trying:

Mexican Salad.—A nice tart salad is especially good.

As a sandwich filler, or an accompaniment to a molded jelly, or with cold jelly, this makes an excellent salad.

Chop fine one cupful of celery, one-half Spanish onion, one cucumber and one green pepper. Mix with the following dressing: Three tablespoonfuls of butter, one tablespoonful of sugar, one teaspoonful of cornstarch, three-fourths of a cupful of cider vinegar, one teaspoonful of salt and one-half teaspoonful of mustard with one beaten egg. Melt the butter, add the dry ingredients, then slowly the vinegar, and cook for five minutes. Pour slowly over the beaten egg, stirring constantly. Return to the double boiler to cook for a few minutes. Chill thoroughly before serving.

Polish Salad.—Shred one pound of cooked game or poultry, moisten with oil and cider vinegar, season with pepper and salt. Allow it to stand for three hours to marinate. Arrange on a bed of lettuce and garnish with four cooked egg yolks passed through a wire sieve. Chop the whites and use as a garnish.
